Street dance champion Jack Harris (aged 12) of Rugeley

Jack is streets ahead in dance competition

A STREET dancer from Rugeley has proved he has got all the right moves after being crowned the winner in a national competition.

Jack Harris, aged 12, of Jubilee Street, entered the Haven Dance Festival, in Pwllheli, North Wales, and won the trophy for the under 14's category.

The youngster, who only started dancing professionally two years ago, has also won an array of other regional competitions.

Proud father, Mat Harris, said: "I am extremely proud of what Jack has achieved, he has got a brilliant natural talent."

"This is the biggest competition he has ever won. Dancing is what he loves so it is great to see him doing so well."

"He has definitely got a bright future and he hopes to make dancing a career but at the moment he is happy to just take things in his stride and progress at his own pace."

Jack, who attends Class One Dance Academy in Hednesford for training and personal tuition, is just one of two boys in his group.

He is now preparing for the same success at his next competition in Prestwich, Manchester, on May 7.

Horse is rescued after fall during procession

A GROUP of cadets rescued a horse that slipped and fell during a St George's Day parade in Great Wyrley.

More than 500 people saw the events unfold at the village's first ever procession to celebrate the Patron Saint's day.

Handlers were straight on the scene to unhook the animal from the dray which was carrying St George Sam Guest, aged 11 and his English Rose Elle Grosvenor, 10.

Cadets from Walsall's TS Vanguard training services stepped in to pull the dray around the village and were applauded by the crowds for their efforts.

The horse suffered no ill-effects but was withdrawn from the procession.

Organiser Alan Kelsey said: "It was an excellent day and it went very well, even though we had a bit of a mishap when the horse fell over."

The procession raised £1,200 for the Royal British Legion's Poppy Appeal.

In Lichfield, shoppers were entertained by folk dancing, Hunt the Dragon, face-painting and live entertainment.

Phone firms' bid is just not cricket PLAYERS IN SPIN OVER MAST PLAN

CONCERNED residents in Cannock are fighting against a proposed telephone mast which they fear will pose a "huge risk" to the area.

The planning application for the mast was submitted to Cannock Chase District Council, on April 7, by Cornerstone – a joint venture between O2 and Vodafone.

The proposed 50 foot mast at Cannock and Rugeley Cricket Club's pitch in Littleworth Road has angered residents who have since set up a petition against the development.

Protesters have so far gathered 95 signatures, with more than half being members or players at the cricket club. They now have until next Wednesday, May 4 to submit their objections.

Mother-of-two, Joanne Civil, of Littleworth Road, set up the petition after realising the mast would stand just 200 metres

by SARAH HAZELWOOD

cannockchron@expressandstar.co.uk

from her home. She said: "It is shocking to hear of the amount of people that didn't know about this application and we want to make everyone aware of what is going on."

"Those who live round here are very concerned at the huge risks that come with a mast of this size."

"My children are just two of many who play on the field and it concerns me how a mast would affect their safety."

"We know the application has already been refused on another site in the area because it would interfere with the beauty of the land, but if it was to go here it would have the same consequences."

"I believe there are also a number of health risks surrounding a development like this and there is also of anguish amongst residents about the long-term effects this could have."

Plans for the mast, which will have three antennae, have previously been rejected in Hednesford Hills on the grounds that it was an open space, classed as green belt land.

But residents are also concerned that if the application is approved there is scope for the mast to extend in the future. Paul Bates, president of Cannock and Rugeley Cricket club who also lives next to the grounds, said: "Collectively the trustees and those involved in the club are completely against this application."

"From the club's point of view there has been no consultation about this, nobody wants the mast here and there is a huge sense of worry from the club as to how they will be affected."

"As a local resident I believe it would greatly reduce the value of my property as well as meaning I have to see an unsightly and possibly harmful structure every day."

The move comes just a year after an application for three wind turbines on nearby land was also rejected.

Rawnsley ward district Councillor Pat Ansel is supporting the residents in their fight against the application.

She said: "I am totally against this application – it is so inappropriate and extremely unfair on the residents."

I will do whatever I can to support the local people in their petition and hope sense is seen and the application is rejected."

Play-off fight for Pitmen

HEDNESFORD take on Leamington tonight (Thu 28) for a place in the Zamaretto Premier Division play-off final.

The Pitmen will be looking to banish memories of defeat to Chippenham Town at the same stage last season, when they lost 2-0.

But unlike on that occasion, tonight they will have home advantage, with a home tie also up for grabs in the final as Hednesford finished second in the league table.

Rob Smith's side are in excellent form, having won their last six games in all competitions.

Storming

Their storming run in the second half of the season nearly saw them beat Truro City to the title, but the Cornwall side won their last seven league games to finish four points clear.

If Hednesford are victorious at Keys Park the play-off final, for a place in Blue Square South Division, two tiers from the Football League, will be held at the same venue on Monday (May 2) against either Salisbury City or Cambridge City.

They will be confident of victory having beaten Leamington twice already this season.

Both wins came at the New Windmill Ground, with a 2-1 league win and a 1-0 success in the Red Insure Cup.

Kick off is at 7.45pm.

Family tributes after death of youth worker

A MUCH-loved and respected youth worker who set up a prominent outdoor charity has died at the age of 78 after a long battle with leukaemia.

Family described Dennis Williams, who lived in Wolverhampton, as an "ebullient, larger than life character who was respected by young and old alike".

His son James, from Hednesford, said: "His years at the National Coal Board as central workshops manager brought him into contact with many people from Cannock and outlying districts. His love of the mountains and outdoors was something many people will remember, and this passion no doubt instilled itself in many young people who benefited from him taking them into the mountains for outdoor pursuits."

For more than 25 years, Mr Williams gave up his spare time to work voluntarily as a qualified mountain leader, youth worker and chairman of a charity called The Barn Outdoor Pursuits Association which was formed in 1959. He took the charity to new heights in 2000 by successfully securing a grant from the Community Fund to purchase a new centre in Betws-y-Coed in Wales.

The charity's aim is to provide low-cost facilities enabling programmes for personal and social development of young people in wild country.

James said: "He also donated his skills and time to train and assess Duke of Edinburgh's Award expeditions, going as far afield as Norway on two occasions. He also spent over nine years as a peripatetic youth worker at many Staffordshire youth clubs. Dennis was also a Chase Trek volunteer helping this youth challenge event to run smoothly over Cannock Chase.

"He also gave up his time to run training courses in mountain leadership allowing other leaders to take young people into the mountains."

Mr Williams, who died on April 11, leaves behind wife Valerie, six children, six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. His funeral will be held on May 3 at Bushbury Crematorium, at 11am.

Trust must pay out in mixed-sex wards rule

BOSSSES at Cannock and Stafford hospitals will be forced to pay out at least £113,250 by the end of the month because of new regulations on mixed-sex wards.

From the start of April, hospital trusts have been docked cash for each case of a patient having to share a ward with members of the opposite sex.

They also face monthly fines for not ensuring the regulations are followed. Health chiefs say they hope to comply with the new rules by the end of August – meaning the trust could be forced to fork out much more.

According to figures set to go before the Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust this week, the trust had 13 cases of patients being forced to share wards between April 1 and 18.

Each case resulted in a £250 fine, totalling £3,250.

The trust also faces paying a £110,000 fee for non-compliance for the month of April. This total figure of £113,250 will then be added to additional £250 penalties incurred during the rest of April.

A task group has now been established to deliver an action plan. This has identified four areas of concern, including the acute medical unit, surgical assessment unit, ward 12 NIV unit and the endoscopy unit.

The only wards exempt from the mixed-sex requirement are those in Accident and Emergency and Critical Care.

Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust – which oversees Stafford and Cannock hospitals – saw an increase of more than 100 per cent in patients forced to share wards with members of the opposite sex from January to February this year.

A trust spokesman said an action plan had been drawn up to help eradicate mixed-sex wards.

Hospital friends search for artists

STAFFORD and Cannock League of Hospital Friends are inviting entries to their youth art competition being run with Stafford Hospital.

The competition is called Reflections and the winning paintings will be displayed in prominent areas at the hospital. The competition is open to local youngsters aged between four and 18. There will be prizes for different age groups.

The subject categories to choose from are: listen and improve; work together; care for people and do the right thing. Entries should be sent to: Yvette Tompkins, Stafford and Cannock League of Hospital Friends, Block 7, St George's Hospital, Corporation Street, Stafford ST16 3AG by May 31.

Royal Engineers' monthly meeting

THE Cannock branch of the Royal Engineers Association holds its next monthly meeting on Monday, May 2, 2nd, from 8pm at the Ex-service-men's Club, Walsall Road, Cannock.

All serving or ex-service Sappers will be made welcome. Call the secretary on 01543-423319 for more details.

Bodyguard, student and funeral director

That's some workload for Jamie at tender age of 19

SHE has already achieved the unusual feat of becoming the country's youngest bodyguard aged just 18. Now, just over a year on, Jamie Barber has opened the first ever funeral parlour in Norton Canes.

While most other 19-year-olds are just starting to get to grips with the world of work, determined Miss Barber is running her new funeral parlour, with a little help from her parents, and juggling studying to become a nurse and working as a bodyguard.

With her mother Lynn and father Michael, who both work in the funeral business, Miss Barber has opened Norton and District Funeral Directors in Brownhills Road, Miss Barber, of Stag Crescent, Norton Canes, said she had been prompted to open the undertaker business after missing out on a university place this year. But since then she has landed a spot to study nursing.

"I did lots of research and found there had never been a funeral home in Norton Canes before," said Miss Barber, a former pupil of Shire Oak School, in Walsall Wood.

Seeking youngsters making a difference

INSPIRATIONAL young people are being sought in Cannock.

Councillor Gordon Alcott, the chairman of Cannock Chase Council is looking for young people who are making a real difference to their communities.

He wants nominations for the council's annual Youth Endeavour Award, which recognises and rewards the achievements and contributions of young people between 11 and 18.

The winner receives an award and £50. To nominate a young person, call Ben Picken on 01543 462621 or log on to www.cannockchasedc.gov.uk

The deadline is this Friday.

"So it's another first for me really."

The family have researched their home town and now images of it adorn the walls of the funeral parlour, while the coffins have been named after significant Staffordshire landmarks such as Chasewater.

Needed

"We're a Norton family born and bred so it's nice for people of Norton to be able to come to us in their home town."

"People may think it's an unusual thing for a young woman to be doing but my mum is an embalmer and my dad works in the funeral business, too, so I used to help her out. I needed a career."

But her other passion, as a bodyguard looks set to continue. While she remains tight-lipped about her clients, Miss Barber still carries out her duties three or four times a year.

In November 2009, Miss Barber was given a certificate on her 18th birthday to qualify as a bodyguard – making her the youngest in the UK.

Dam repair work now disrupting rail service

DAM restoration work at a popular beauty spot has caused major disruptions for the heritage railway that operates from the site.

Contractors had hoped to hand back a closed section of railway track to Chasewater Railway in time for the Easter weekend but the £3m repair work has been delayed.

Railway bosses are losing money because of the delay to the Chasewater Dam repairs as they are not charging the full standard rail fare.

Contractor Galliford Try needs to work on the rail alignment so tracks can be relaid and certified as being safe.

Chris Chivers, the railway's finance director, said: "We understand that, due to some technical difficulties, they may be delayed for some time."

"Rather than selling tickets, we are taking donations on board," Mr Chivers added.

Mr Chivers said the Railway had not been too badly affected financially. However, he said he was not aware how long it would be before the full line was up and running again.

MP cuts blue ribbon for club's 100th year

CHASE MP Aidan Burley visited the re-named Cannock Conservative Club to mark its centenary.

Mr Burley gave a speech praising the work of the club and for its role in turning Cannock Chase blue for the first time in 18 years and cut the official ribbon confirming the club's name change from the Unionist Club.

Founded in 1911, the organisation at High Green has kept the Tory presence in Cannock for 100 years. The club has recently undergone a major refurbishment.

The visit comes only a few months after Prime Minister David Cameron called at the club to help mark its milestone anniversary.

Mr Cameron unveiled a plaque during the visit in January and also met Tory councillors involved in May's district elections when the party will be bidding to become the largest on Cannock Chase Council.

Family fun day to mark Save the Children Week

FAMILIES in Cannock are invited to a free fundraising event this weekend to mark the national Save the Children Week.

The free event will be held on Saturday (April 30), in the grounds of St Luke's Church, in Cannock town centre, from 10am until 2pm.

Visitors are invited to bring a picnic and get involved in a host of activities ranging from face-painting and a bouncy castle to a raffle and balloon release.

Organisers are hoping to release 500 balloons in aid of the charity to end the awareness week on a high.

Preet Chandy, campaign co-ordinator, said: "We hope to raise as much money as possible for an extremely worthy cause."

"The support that we have received from local people and businesses so far has been just amazing and we are hoping for an even better response on the day."

"It is great to see the town coming together to raise funds and we hope that this could be the start of many more annual fundraisers in the area."

Baskets of fun at nursery

YOUNGSTERS at a Bridgtown nursery had basket loads of fun as they took part in a cracking programme of Easter activities.

Happy Tots nursery, in Orbital Plaza, hosted an array of activities from making Easter cards, baking nest cakes, painting egg shells and a scrambled egg play.

The children hunted high and low around the nursery garden for hidden egg-shaped surprises, before racing each other in the annual egg and spoon race.

Parents were also busy at home making Easter bonnets for the Happy Tots Easter bonnet parade last Tuesday (April 19).

Judy Kelly, manager at Happy Tots said: "Easter is a great time for the children, as they can dress up, play games, paint pictures, bake cakes, make cards and play hide and seek whilst understanding more about the season itself."

For more information on Happy Tots call 01543 509089 or visit www.happy-tots.com.

Show of fashion

CHADSMOOR Methodist Church is hosting a fundraising fashion show to raise money for the 100 year old building.

This year the church celebrates its 100th milestone and is marking the occasion with a series of events.

The fashion show, sponsored by Bonmarche, will take place on Thursday May 5, from 7.30pm.

Entry is £2 and refreshments will be available.

Tickets can be purchased on the door or from the Cannock branch of Bonmarche.

Cadets show their St George spirit to rescue fallen horse

Rescuers on the scene as the horse topples over during the parade

The St George's Day procession starts along Wharwell Lane

Great Wyrley RBL standard carried by Charles Haywood, from Great Wyrley

St George Sam Guest (aged 11) and his English Rose Elle Grosvenor (10)

A GROUP of cadets saved the day after a shire horse slipped and fell at Great Wyrley's first St George's parade.

More than 500 villagers gathered for the event on Saturday (April 23) and looked on as the horse stumbled to the ground.

Handlers were straight on the scene to unhook the animal from the dray which was carrying St George and his English Rose.

Cadets from Walsall's TS Vanguard training services stepped in to pull the dray around the village and were applauded by the crowds.

One of the handlers suffered a slight knock to the knee as they tried to calm the horse down, but after full check-ups both were deemed fit and well.

Alan Kelsey, one of the event organisers, said: "It was an excellent day and for the first parade in the village it went very well."

"Even though we had a bit of a mishap when the horse got a bit spooked and fell over everyone pulled together and the cadets were really great to volunteer their services."

Tiring

"It looked worse than it was but we decided to withdraw the horse from the rest of the parade just to ensure that he was okay. We didn't think it was fair to keep him in."

"The cadets saved the day, it was tiring for them in the heat but they held out and made sure they did whatever they could to ensure the parade went ahead."

"We are now hoping for an even bigger and better event next year."

The procession, held in aid of the Great Wyrley branch of the Royal British Legion, raised £1,200 for the Poppy Appeal adding to the £24,000 already collected this year.

Also present was Penkridge town crier Bevan Craddock Cannock Chase Drum Corps, and Chester the clown.

Meanwhile, in Lichfield shoppers were entertained by an array of activities such as English folk dancing, a Hunt the Dragon competition, storytelling theatre, face-painting and live music.

Information day of help on migraine

AN EXPERT on migraine will be speaking at an advice event in Staffordshire.

National charity Migraine Action is running it on May 14 to give people who are affected by migraine the opportunity to gain information and advice on managing the condition.

It is estimated one in seven people are affected by migraine, including around 106,000 people in Staffordshire.

The World Health Organisation has classified migraine as among the top 20 most disabling lifetime conditions. Symptoms include severe headache, visual disturbances, nausea, numbness, speech difficulties, confusion and a sensitivity to light.

Dr Paul Ballinger, a senior partner at a general practice in Cannock who started the Cannock Headache Service in 2002, will be speaking along with Dr Andrew Dowson, director of headache services at King's College Hospital, London and chairman of Migraine Action's medical advisory board.

A series of afternoon workshops will take place with topics including botox for migraine and getting the most out of a consultation with your GP.

The meeting will take place at The Dudson Centre, Hope Street, Hanley, Stoke-on-Trent, between 9.30am and 3pm. It costs £15 for Migraine Action members and £20 for non-members.

Learning about a great collector

THERE will be a talk in Lichfield on a Staffordshire clergyman who established one of the finest private collections of Egyptian artefacts.

Beverly Rogers will be telling the story of the Rev William Macgregor at the next meeting of the Staffordshire Archaeological and Historical Society this Friday at St Mary's Heritage Centre in Market Place at 8pm.

Mr Macgregor, who was a Vicar in Tamworth, joined the Egypt Exploration Society in 1885 and brought back many Egyptian artefacts to the town and established a museum at his home in Bolehall.

Neil engineers top status

AN ENGINEER who progressed from stacking shelves to working on flood alleviation projects in Staffordshire has achieved top professional status.

Neil Lote is celebrating after being awarded technician membership of the Institution of Civil Engineers.

The 33-year-old, of Littleworth Road, Hednesford, loaded the shelves at Tesco in Hawks Green for eight years before retraining. Neil, now a technical specialist at the Environment Agency based at Fradley Park in Lichfield, said: "I came into the profession through the back door and only over the last five years have I started climbing the career ladder."

"My highlight has been designing and managing the construction of a storm water reservoir, which reduces the risk of flooding in Stone."

Team commands respect for challenge

AN EX-MARINE has rounded up the troops from his workplace in Cannock to raise money for charity.

Matt Collins, who works at IDE Systems, is captaining a team of 12 employees and friends of the company as they take on the Commando Challenge to raise money for the Royal Marines Charitable Trust.

The two-day event in May involves a 17 kilometre endurance run, and Mr Collins is hoping to raise £10,000 through sponsors for a cause close to his heart. He said: "I was in the marines for seven years, and spent five years in Iraq. This is a way of me giving something back."

The charity, similar to Help for Heroes, was set up to help marines who suffer from injuries sustained during service.

Mr Collins, aged 31, has currently raised £3,300, while the charity itself aims to raise £6 million by 2014, the 350th anniversary of the formation of the marines.

The Commando Challenge is a 17 kilometre run split into three phases, and is part of the testing a trainee has to go through before becoming a marine.

The team from IDE Systems, an electrical distribution company for events, has been training on Cannock Chase as the terrain is similar to the one it will be facing at the Commando Training Centre in Lympstone, in Devon.

For more information, go to www.commandochallenge.co.uk or to make a donation visit www.justgiving.com/cannock-commandos

Decision on firm's signs bid deferred

COUNCILLORS have put off a decision on plans by a Cannock company to erect 11 advertising signs on a removals and storage firm until after a site meeting.

Planning officers say the hearings on Your Self Store in Ash Park, Hyssop Close, would look "peculiar and incongruous."

Although the store had argued that the signs were vital to the survival of the business, the officers recommended refusal.

But members of the district council's development control committee decided to take a look at the site for themselves.

The storage firm wants to sit the advertising signs above the eaves of the building.

A report by officers advises that signs are always sited below the eaves' height.

But Councillor Ray Easton, committee vice-chairman, said: "Businesses have not to advertise and we have to be liberal to some extent."

Charity shop loses fight to keep going

A CHARITY shop in Hednesford is to close as it has not been hitting its sales targets. The Age UK charity shop in Market Street, has until the end of June until it closes its doors for good. Two paid members of staff, 10 volunteers and probation workers are all set to lose their jobs in the closure. Workers and volunteers at the shop have been battling to keep it open.

A petition, which gathered more than 350 signatures in two days from members of the public, also failed to sway charity bosses to keep it open.

It was once the Help the Aged store, before the charity merged with the Age Concern group. The charity shop which has been on the site for the past five years in the town. In March, it was revealed how the store's future was under consultation.

Christine Chamberlain, assistant manager, said it was sad news but they had been expecting it for some time.

"This is going to be really difficult for us, and for me," she said. "I have been working here since the shop opened five years ago and before then I worked as a volunteer for nine years."

"My husband and daughter are both out of work, and I'm 55-year-old, so I am going to struggle to get work. It's upsetting."

Mrs Chamberlain, who lives in Cannock, said the store had been doing well over the past four months and it was a shame they were not given more of a chance to increase sales.

Margaret Gwyther, area sales manager, who runs the Hednesford shop, said: "Unfortunately, the shop in Hednesford is closing on June 23 as it's no longer profitable."

"We would like to thank our volunteers and team of staff and local people who have supported us."

Donald in the swim to help boost charity

A RUGELEY man has swum more than three miles to raise money for a charity close to his heart.

Donald Bates, aged 64, undertook his marathon swim in aid of Leukemia Research completing just over three miles in two and a half hours at Cannock Leisure Centre.

Mr Bates, who has been recently diagnosed with prostate cancer, decided to raise money in memory of his great nephew Arran Anger who died from leukemia in December 2009.

Mr Bates has been swimming regularly at Cannock Leisure Centre since 1991, having completed 2,264 miles or a total of 108,676 lengths of the pool.

He wanted to do the fundraiser before the pool closes later this month for a major refurbishment.

It is not due to reopen until summer next year.

Mr Bates, who raised £1,200, said he would like to thank the life guards and staff at the leisure centre for allowing him to complete the challenge and for all the help and support they have given him over the years he has been using the centre.

Stopped cars needed work

NEARLY one in four vehicles stopped by police on a main route out of Cannock needed urgent repairs to make them roadworthy.

A total of 40 vehicles were pulled over on the A41 at Churchbridge in Great Wyrley earlier this month.

Ten of those stopped were ordered to undertake immediate repair work before being allowed back on the road. One driver was fined £500 after his vehicle was found to be using kerosene instead of diesel.

The crackdown was the latest in a series of operations to tackle rogue traders, unsafe vehicles and people driving without licences or MoTs.

David Pattison, director of legal and public health protection services at South Staffordshire Council, said: "One in four vehicles we stopped weren't safe and that's really worrying."

Youngsters spruce up estate

Katie Lunn, above, aged 14, and Kia Matthews, 11, give the gates attention

YOUNGSTERS have been helping to improve their neighbourhood during the Easter holidays.

Residents of Holyoake Place on the Springfields Estate, Rugeley, were invited to get involved in designing new gates and a garden space.

Young people were involved in painting the new gates last week in readiness for a Spring Fest that was due to take place at Holyoake Place on Wednesday. It was aiming to bring back community spirit, celebrate the Royal Wedding and get the residents of Springfields to work together to create a nicer place to live.

Janette Stevenson, chairman of Springfields Residents' Association, said: "The work has transformed the area. It has provided children and young people an opportunity to contribute to their community."

Centre aware of hedgehogs

A GARDEN centre near Rugeley is supporting Hedgehog Awareness Week at the beginning of May.

Wolsley Bridge Garden Centre will be offering a free advice leaflet about creating gardens that are hedgehog-friendly during the week, which runs from May 1 to 7.

Manager Ian Byrne said: "Hedgehogs provide an important role in helping naturally to control slugs in the garden and are an important friend to the gardener."

The British Hedgehog Preservation Society has supplied a complimentary leaflet Gardening with Hedgehogs for visitors to take home.

Chief Executive Fay Vass said: "It is vital that we raise awareness with gardeners on how to make sure they care for the hedgehogs."

Fitness centre planned at site

AN EMPTY industrial unit in Cannock could be transformed into a health and fitness centre creating up to five jobs. Consent is being sought by Wayne Goodwin for the change of use at Hollies Business Park, Hollies Park Road.

A statement with the application to Cannock Chase District Council says: "The application unit is within easy walking distance of the bus station. Furthermore, women who are on their own may not be willing to walk in the town centre, which will be partly closed down during the evening, for personal safety reasons, and the application site will be much safer with its adjacent car parking facilities."

Launch of strategy

BURNTWOOD Town Council is holding its annual meeting in Burntwood Library on May 19 at 7pm. It will see the launch of the town strategy. Voters have until May 17 to lodge questions and suggestions to be considered at the meeting. They should be sent to the council at unit 1, Lambourne House, Bridge Cross Road, or emailed to info@burntwood-tc.gov.uk

Lions set for yearly delivery of plants

BURNTWOOD Lions Club is holding its fifth annual plant sale.

Orders are placed with the Lions and then the plants are delivered to the door.

Fundraising chairman John Wallace said the deliveries would be taking place on Saturday, May 21.

"Due to the quality of the plants and the service that Burntwood Lions give, our orders are ever increasing," Mr Wallace said.

"Full colour brochures have been distributed to around 9,000 homes during April.

"All proceeds from the sale of the plants are used to support deserving local causes or other Lions projects."

He added: "Last year Burntwood residents placed nearly £9,000 worth of orders which were picked, checked, boxed and delivered all in one day.

"This was a major logistical operation.

"To do this we need as much help as possible, as our club has only 11 members," he explained.

Anyone who would like to help on the day with deliveries or who would like to receive a brochure should contact the club on 01543 671949.

Chance to give blood

DONORS are invited to roll up their sleeves in Burntwood tomorrow (Friday).

The National Blood Service will be at the Memorial Community Association, in Rugeley Road, and is appealing for volunteers to attend.

Sessions take place between 10am and noon and from 1.30 to 4pm. Call 0300 1232323 to book.

Leisure centre work starts

THE £6.3m modernisation of Chase Leisure Centre is now under way.

Contractor GF Tomlinson Ltd began work on the modernisation and refurbishment of the Stafford Road venue on Tuesday (April 26). The centre will remain open to the public during the work.

The main reception entrance will be closed towards the end of the week, but two separate temporary entrances for users of the leisure centre and golf course will be opened at the rear of the building.

Swimmers will be unable to use the pool for 14 months with classes moving to Rugeley Leisure Centre during the work. The new pool will have a moveable floor which will enable it to be split into two for teaching. There will also be a spectator gallery for 200 people. The fitness suite will be developed and is expected to open early next year.

Group exercise, badminton, football, health and fitness and indoor bowls will continue to be available during the construction, while Cannock Park Golf Course will also remain open.

The contractor will control all construction traffic and officials will be carrying out checks to discourage people from using the car park but not the facilities.

Images revealed to illustrate parish scheme

Public meeting over village development

DEVELOPERS behind a major building project in Penkridge have revealed images to illustrate the plans.

As well as 150 homes, the mixed use development also includes proposals for a supermarket, hotel, nursing home and petrol station.

Concern over the supermarket at the Lyne Hill Industrial Estate, in Boscomoor Lane, has led to a public meeting being called.

The village already has two Co-op stores, one at a petrol station on Stafford Road and another in the centre. The 34.19 acres site, on 01543 671949.

adjacent to the Wolverhampton Road, would have three access points, one from Wolverhampton Road and two from Boscomoor Lane.

Penkridge South East councillor Roger Holt has said plans had been well received, but some residents had expressed concerns about adding another supermarket to the village.

Councillor Holt said: "It hasn't taken off as an industrial estate because the access is very difficult and it isn't an ideal place for a business venture."

Plans include a 45,000 sq ft supermarket, non-food retail of 30,000 sq ft, a six-pump petrol station, a 70 bedroom three-storey hotel, a two-storey nursing home, and up to 150 new houses.

Developers Northcreek Estates held an exhibition in January where residents were given an early indication of the plans for the brownfield site.

Northcreek Estates have hinted that there may be scope to create a pedestrian route from the Boscomoor Shopping Centre.

Abandoned

There is also an idea to create a 1.5 mile pedestrian and cycle route along an abandoned railway line south of the site.

Northcreek Estates have told nearby residents that the materials for the new building will be 'sympathetic' to the area including brick, render and tile.

A public green spot could be created as part of the development and some of the house would be designated as starter homes.

A public meeting has been planned for next month where residents will be asked to have a say on plans.

The meeting will be held at the Haling Dene Centre, in Cannock Road, Penkridge, on Monday, May 9 at 7.30pm.

Military theme for town's Charter Fair

RUGELEY'S annual Charter Fair will take place on June 4, at Hagley Park.

The theme for this year's event – which traditionally attracts thousands of people from across the Midlands – will be the military. Organisers want to celebrate 90 years of the Royal British Legion.

The event will start at noon with a parade through the town before arriving at Hagley Park at 1pm.

Main stage attractions will include a motorbike display, military re-enactments, musical entertainment and various street acts, along with the usual stalls and exhibitors.

Some of the acts include: The Flying

Gunners – a Royal Artillery motorbike display team, an air display by VT10, re-enactment by the Sealed Knots; and a Hurricane and Spitfire for people to sit in and have their pictures taken.

The Top Bananas, a walking street entertainment band on stilts, will be making an appearance, as will the West Midlands Police Band.

Town clerk Nazlin Somani, said: "If anyone would like to participate in the parade or secure a market stall or an exhibitors stand, they can contact the town council on 01889 574074."

The town was granted its market charter by the Crown in 1259 and celebrated its 750th anniversary last year. As part of the Charter Fair, the Town Council is organising an Off Your Trolley competition.

Local businesses and primary schools are asked to decorate shopping trolleys and the groups judged the most imaginatively will win a prize.

For an application form, visit Chris Green at Blueprint, Brewery Street Arcade or Roses Café, Albion Street.

Participants will be supplied with a shopping trolley two weeks before the event and should meet with their finished product at 10.30am on the day of the Charter Fair. Call 07817 081821.

Club is backing forces

Dave Childs and Lynne Noake with tickets for the event at Chase Social Club

A HEDNESFORD club is putting its weight behind a soldiers' charity to support some of its customers who are in the armed forces.

Staff at Chase Social Club are holding a fundraising evening in aid of the Help For Heroes charity on Friday, May 6m starting at 7.30pm.

The show will feature local singers Peter Knight, Paul Steadman, John Crosley and duo Hank and Geoff, as well as Telford vocalist Steve Martin.

Club steward David Childs said:

"This is the first time we've held a show for the charity but it's a cause that's close to our hearts as some of our regulars are in the forces and, in fact, one of them is in Afghanistan at the moment."

He said that a raffle would be held on the night and a collecting bucket would also be passed around.

Organisers recommend early booking as tickets, price £3, have been limited to 140. For more information, contact David on 01543 871564.

Sunshine is the hope for carnival day

ORGANISERS have begun preparations for Great Wyrley Carnival – one of the biggest in Staffordshire.

Around 6,000 people visited last year's event, almost 2,000 more than the record-breaking attendance of 2009.

Organisers now hope the sun will come out for this year's event on Saturday, June 25 – but have vowed the show will go on whatever the weather.

Carnival committee member Pauline Kelsey said: "We're a charity so we really can't afford to insure against the possibility of rain."

"Even if it pours down we shall carry on regardless, in the good old British tradition."

The 12-strong committee has been working for months to bring together this year's spectacle, now in its 35th year.

The carnival has been running continuously without a break since the Silver Jubilee year of 1977. Mrs Kelsey credited the police and local authority for helping them keep costs low.

The volunteers have help from police specials on the day to help control the crowds and traffic.

"The carnival declined in numbers at one stage but it has never stopped and now the crowds are really up again."

"Other carnivals have fallen by the wayside but we're fortunate thanks to a very committed band of volunteers," she added.

The theme for the floats this year will be music, song and dance, with the procession leaving the Star Field, off Walsall Road, at noon and travelling along to Holly Lane, Tower View Road, Gorse Lane, Hilton Lane, Wardles Lane, Brook Lane and returning to the Star Field via Hazel Lane.

The bands are national champions The Chase Royals, West Midlands Crystalettes, Cannock Chase Drum Corps and an RAF cadet band. The official opening is at 1.15pm.

To put on a stall contact 01922 414647.

Canal festivals to flow as locks remain open

NO OVERNIGHT lock closures will be in force during this year's main boating season while work is carried out on Chasewater Reservoir.

There had been fears the overnight closures in force during the 2010 season would be repeated this year, disrupting boaters during the peak months.

At least two major canal festivals were cancelled last year because of the £2.5m restoration of the Chasewater Dam.

But bosses at British Waterways confirmed the closures would be in place this year – unless they are forced to introduce them because of vandalism attacks.

They say vandalism is now one of the main threats to water levels, with vandals targeting locks and sections being drained. Last year, overnight lock closures had to be brought in as part of a package of measures to help manage water resources on the Birmingham Canal Navigations while the reservoir – one of the main water supplies for 198 miles of canals – was drained for essential repairs.

Stronger

Dean Davies, waterways manager, said: "Last year was a challenging year and we reluctantly took the decision to close lock flights overnight as a precautionary measure."

"However, thanks to the action we took last year, and the co-operation we received from the boating community, we are now in a much stronger position and, barring any major incidents or vandalism, should be able to avoid closing any locks."

He added: "The situation is still very delicate and we'll be monitoring things closely. "Wherever possible we would still encourage boaters to follow the broad principle of keeping their evening boat movements to a minimum and by doing so, make a significant contribution to keeping the locks open."

Last year, the annual Birmingham Canal Navigations Society's marathon cruise, which had been due to take place in May, was cancelled.

Pelsall Canal Festival was also a victim but preparations for this year are forging ahead.

Drivers respond to go slow at school

MORE schools in Staffordshire are to have 20mph speed limit zones enforced.

Drivers will now have to drive slower outside 32 schools during peak times, it has been revealed.

Sixteen schools, including St Michael's RC Primary School, Sturgeon's Hill, Lichfield; Heath Hayes Primary, Wimblesbury Road, Heath Hayes, Chase Terrace Primary, Rugeley Road, Burntwood, and Pye Green Valley Primary, Rosehill, Hednesford, will take part in a project launched by Staffordshire's road safety chief to cut speeds.

The rolling programme to cut speeds has been a success since a September launch. The Speed Indicator Devices formed phase one of a campaign to cut speeds.

Legally enforceable part-time 20mph zones – some of the first in England to be approved – were on A and B roads. If they have a positive effect, they will be rolled out across the county, as funding allows.

Difference

Staffordshire County Council won Government backing for restrictions on main roads. Only 10 other English areas have permission.

Councillor Mike Maryon, cabinet member for highways and transport, said: "Lowering speeds from 30mph to 20mph can literally save lives.

"This '20 is plenty' scheme has already started to make a big difference to drivers' behaviour and people are really taking heed of the message.

"The more we highlight and drive home this campaign, the safer our highways will be for some of the most vulnerable members of the community."

Traffic is unaffected when children are in class, and during school holidays.

Museum moves to summer

A CANNOCK visitor centre has switched to its summer opening times.

Over the winter, The Museum of Cannock Chase in Hednesford has been closed at weekends and shut earlier in the week.

However, from last Saturday (April 23) the attraction in Valley Road opened from 11am to 5pm seven days a week.

Alisa Bellingham, Cannock Chase Council Museum services officer, said: "The museum is the perfect spot for the summer.

"As well as everything inside the building, and the huge number of activities and events we have over the school holidays, we have beautiful picnic areas and walks on the Hednesford Hills right on our doorstep."

The museum put on a host of activities over the Easter school holiday, including art and craft workshops, royal wedding fun and games and free play sessions.

Crew attend lifeboat meal

THE Stafford with Rugeley branch of the Royal National Lifeboat Institution held its annual dinner at Brocton Golf Club. Some of the lifeboat crew from Rhyll lifeboat station travelled up to attend.

The Welsh seaside town's lifeboat was bought by the branch through donations of the two towns and they still support Rhyll and frequently visit the station.

Children celebrate early

CHILDREN have been celebrating the Royal Wedding in style.

The Norton Canes Family Fun Club and the Friends of Norton Canes made sure they were the first to wish the William and Kate well with their own party held more than a week early.

The fun club, which hosts activity sessions for children during the school holidays, wanted to mark the occasion with the youngsters. Co-ordinator Jackie Reeves said: "We had a party day, and the children were able to dress up, make their own crowns, decorate their pretend wedding cakes. Then we sat down to eat party food.

"We also had a clown and a disco. We played games such as musical thrones and pass the crowns. All the children enjoyed it. We celebrated a week early as this was the last Easter club before the children went back to school."

Do we really need all these councils? Pot, kettle, black spring to mind

HAVING read the letters over the past few weeks I have come to the conclusion that the people of Cannock Chase must be fed up with the Labour slating the Conservatives & Liberal Democrats and vice versa.

Yes we all know that the Labour bankrupted the country and now the coalition want to sort that out at far too fast a pace, putting so many people out of work.

However we note that this does not mean many politicians or councillors. I personally can not see why we need and have to pay for all these councils. First we have to pay for the county council then the district council then as if that is not enough we then have to pay for parish or town councils.

These have been dreamed up by the political parties to enlarge their parties.

I fail to see what a parish/town council does that cannot be done by the district council and therefore cutting the cost to the council bills. I know that these councils will put up a big fight to keep their places but the people need to think hard about the money we have to pay out for these at a time when wages are not going up, the cost of living is going up, and people are losing their jobs.

Do we really need all these councils or can we cut them and give the others some more to do which could produce more money to keep people in their jobs. After all, as the Government keeps saying: 'We are all in it together.'

R PEATY
BEACON WAY
WIMBLEBURY

I WAS quite surprised to see the comments made by Lib Dem candidate, Chris Collis, in the paper in which he complained about Heath Hayes parish council increasing its council tax this year.

He asked: 'Why? Nobody seemed to know.' Strange. If he had read the local papers or had bothered to ask the parish clerk, then he would realise that the rise is due to the fact that there are parish council elections this year, which have to be paid for and this is the reason for the increase.

You can take one of two views of the author this matter. Either he just doesn't know what he is talking about or he just couldn't be bothered to find out the reason for the increase. Neither is very flattering.

Hednesford Town Council has not increased its council tax this year and is planning improvements to the Pye Green Community Centre to improve access for the disabled and improve services to residents. Obviously this is not something Mr Collis approves of, or did he not bother to find out?

He talks about acting responsibly with our money. His idea of "acting responsibly" is to put the £500,000 that Asda gave our district council to spend on sports projects in our area at risk when the Conservative/Lib Dem administration decided to knock the stadium down, despite advice from council officers that the council might lose the half million pounds if they did so.

We, the Council Tax payers, may end up having to pay this money back, plus interest. Is this acting responsibly? Ever heard of the pot calling the kettle black?

There has to be cuts and we all must play our part

I REFER to the letter by Chris Collis, entitled Financial Mess Left by Labour (Chronicle, April 14).

I feel really sorry for Chris Collis in that he is once again having to scrape the barrel with some of his usual inaccurate comments.

First, let me remind him that it was the world's banks that created the problem in which the Government of the day got caught up in the turmoil and yes there has to be cuts and we all must play our part.

However the coalition Government that we now have is placing the pain of recovery on us, the working people of the country, while the rich still get richer.

Now let me come to local issues. If Chris Collis was to take a little time out on the first Wednesday of each month and come to the Heath Hayes & Wimblebury parish council meetings he would be more knowledgeable on how a council is run.

He states that the precept rate has gone up by a massive 16 per cent - the only council to raise the rate. True, it looks that way but Councillor Collis does or should know that the same parish council has reduced the precept rate year in year out since 2005, reducing the levy by 27 per cent until this year, giving an average decrease of 11 per cent overall.

To Councillor Collis, I say it is your group at District level that vandalised the stadium just as it was needed when the country won the bid to stage the Olympic games. It was 'your lot' who reduced the bus token scheme from the best in the UK under a Labour Council to the worst possible, thankfully taken out of your hands by the County Council.

There is the on-going saga with Asda which could result in more than £500,000 pounds of 106 money being lost to the community.

You are planning spending millions of pounds at the Leisure Centre when £800,000 would have solved the problem, you want to leave us with the same financial problems that you took us into at the Rugeley Leisure Centre.

I will not mention the massive increases you gave yourselves, going against the recommendation of the expenses committee decision.

Embarrassed by MP's actions at Anzac ceremony

WOULD the MP for Cannock consider going to the cenotaph on November 11 as the elected representative, host to soldiers who died and are buried on his territory during World War One, carrying no wreath and leaving half way through the service?

I thought not. He should be ashamed. To Australians and New Zealanders ANZAC Day is our November 11.

Cannock Chase is the largest ANZAC Day ceremony in the northern hemisphere but he seemed too busy to keep it sacrosanct in his diary.

Overseas visitors had made special journeys from far and wide to be on his turf but he did not stay to the end. Not good enough, sir. I hold a passport to both NZ and the UK and I WAS embarrassed.

Closures to balance the books

IN his letter of April 14, Chris Collis refers to certain councillors living in a world of denial, regarding the unprecedented financial mess left by 13 years of Labour.

Councillor Collis, who was part of the recent Con/Dem run Council in Cannock, would be well advised to have a good look at the mismanagement of public funds, and the financial mess left by the Con/Dems before shooting his mouth off.

For more than five years the Council taxpayer had to put up with cuts in services and facilities, closures and unnecessary levels of staffing and pay within the council's hierarchy, resulting in the Council Tax payer having to pay far more for far less.

Public toilets and Cannock

Stadium are some of the closures that were meted out by the Con/Dem-run Council, all done without a mandate, just to try and balance the books.

The 18 years of Tory rule, did very little for the less well off in this country.

Councillor Collis should now be honest and accept that the economic incompetence of the recent Con/Dem run authority failed the Council Tax payer and failed the electorate. And in a world of recess-sion and debt, he cannot fairly blame Labour for all of this country's economic problems. Uncontrolled capitalism, the banks and the demise of the mixed economy is responsible for a lot of it.

In my opinion, the attack made on Labour by Chris Collis is hypocritical, biased and nothing more than a piece of electoral cosmetics.

Sentencing for bath theft pair

TWO opportunist thieves who stole a roll-top bath from outside a Hednesford home have been sentenced.

Matthew Dennis and Gavin James, both aged 28, had been driving past a property when they noticed the cast iron bath. Cannock magistrates court heard last week.

James, of High Street, Brownhills, and Dennis of Eden Drive, Walsall, both admitted theft, including theft by finding.

Samantha Frazer, prosecuting, said they took the bath at around 2.30pm on March 16. She said it was being stored there by its owner and cost between £200 and £300.

She added: "Police were on patrol in Cannock and became aware of a Ford Transit flat top van travelling along the road with the bath on it. They stopped it."

Ms Frazer said the thieves had not tried to cover it up while they were taking it away on the van.

She said when they were interviewed they told police they were "tattooing" and didn't know the area, but had spotted the bath.

They had tried knocking the door for the owner, but got no reply so decided to put it on the back of the van and take it.

"They knew they had no permission to take it," she added.

In mitigation, Mr Julian Derry said it was in clear view of the road.

He said Dennis was working well on his drug rehabilitation treatment and James, who also was on methadone script, was recovering from testicular cancer.

Magistrates gave Dennis a 200-hour community order and ordered him to pay £85 in costs.

James was given a two-month curfew between the hours of noon and midnight. He was also ordered to pay £85 in costs.

Keep band on road plea

Members of the Chase Royals marching band Molleigh Capewell, front, Leigha Blackmoor, Karla Evans and Leisha Blackmoor

MEMBERS of a marching band are appealing for a volunteer driver to step in and help keep them on the road.

The Brownhills-based Chase Royals, made up of 45 members from across Walsall, Cannock and Wolverhampton, travel around the country to take part in competitions and perform in events.

However, their regular elderly driver was taken ill last year and has not been able to return to his post. The group is now desperate for someone to help.

The Chase Royals have competitions and carnivals lined up nearly every week during the summer and members said time was running out for them to find a new driver.

Band trainer Gary Capewell, aged 29, from Burntwood, said keeping the coach going was as much of a financial strain as they could take and to pay a driver would be an extra £100 a day.

He said: "It's money we don't have, and if there is someone out there with a bit of spare time who would be willing to help us out we would be so grateful. I have looked into passing the test myself but it's just so expensive." Anyone interested in helping can call Gary on 07887 893196.

The glamorous Nellie Cain

All smiles from some of the Helen Cain singers

Helen Cain prepares for a television show

Memories of Nellie

NELLIE Cain was born in 1912 to parents Walter and Mary Cain. The family ran a fish and chip shop on the Hednesford Road, Heath Hayes (next to Bob Cadman's hairdressers) where the Tanning Shop and Chinese Takeaway is today.

There were four children in all, William Isaac, Walter, Florrie and Nellie.

Nellie apparently hated living at the chip shop, as she had to seal her wardrobe against the smell to protect her evening dresses, which she wore for her performances.

She had been singing since she was five, and in later years started a singing group consisting of mainly her pupils, called Romance in Song, and it quickly became very popular.

Talent

They performed for many charities, old people's homes, local shows and theatres, often with the Cannock dancing school run by Margaret Stone - The Stonetta School of Dance.

Nellie, or Helen Cain as she was known professionally, was a magnificent soprano, and won many talent competitions including the Gaumont British Golden Voice in 1937. As well as singing with her group, she also appeared as a solo artist across the country.

Many local people had singing lessons with Nellie, and every single person recalls how beautiful, talented and generous she was. One of her

In February Barbara Gilmour wrote to The Chronicle requesting information about Cannock celebrity Nellie Cain. Many of her pupils, friends and family got in touch and here Barbara shares what she found with our readers pupils Edna Emery (nee Jones), who kindly provided the photograph, remembers Nellie giving her an evening dress, which after alterations, was worn for many of her own singing and dancing shows.

Mrs Catherine Twyman, another pupil, was given a coat by Nellie on which she could still smell her perfume. Cath was due to sing on Radio Luxembourg with Nellie playing the piano for her, but sadly Nellie died before this could take place. Thanks to Cath for loaning me her scrapbook showing 'Helen' at the ATV studios during 1957.

Information appeal on 'local celebrity'
COULD anyone offer any information on a past local celebrity called Nellie Cain?
She was a celebrated singer and piano teacher who apparently lived in our house in Gorsemoor Road, Heath Hayes.
We believe she died in a car crash on the way to the TV studios in Birmingham in the early 1960s. William Isaac Cain then sold the house to another family in 1964.
He had originally bought the house in 1938, but we are unsure if Nellie was his wife, sister or possibly his daughter.
We have researched the history of our house since 1911 when it was detailed as 'land fronting Gorsemoor Lane (formerly Lencroft Road)', followed by its construction in 1915.
Any information on Nellie or William would be gratefully received.
BARBARA AND STUART GILMOUR
GORSEMOOR ROAD
HEATH HAYES

In 1941 Nellie married Richard Orgee at St Anne's Church, Chasetown. They had two sons, Vernon born in 1942 and Stephen in 1944.

Tragically, on 16th January 1958, Nellie was killed in a car accident with a lorry. It occurred during the afternoon on the Chester Road, near Stonnall. She was on her way to the ATV Studios in Aston, Birmingham, to sign a contract for her group, The Helen Cain Singers, to become professional and to be the backing group for the Joe Loss Orchestra on Bid for Fame.

This meant it would now be unnecessary for the show to bring the Black & White Minstrels up from London each week. The group enjoyed many weekends at the ATV studios appearing in its own solo spot, as well as accompanying other artists.

By this time, Nellie and Richard had sadly divorced, and she was engaged to Major Ernest Wills, of Cannock.

After her untimely death her two sons moved to live in Malvern with their father. Nellie is buried in St. John's Churchyard, Heath Hayes.

Ruby Lycett, became a pupil of Nellie when she was 11. She said the whole village was devastated to hear of her death.

"As we never saw her grow old, our memories will always be of a really beautiful lady with a beautiful voice," Ruby said.

Sincere thanks to everyone who kindly contacted me after reading my letter in The Chronicle.

Founder

My inquiries have led to contact with Nellie's niece Brenda, who lives in California, and another pupil Olwen Foster, now living in Australia. She was herself a prominent singer, and she and her husband Ivan were founder members of Bloxwich and Brownhills Musical Theatre. I hope to have stirred happy memories for all.

● Barbara also thanked the following for their help: John Colley, John Deans, Reg Fullelove, Harold Ward, Brian Wright, Maisie Smith, Noreen Parsons, Margaret Phillips, Carol White, Vivienne Martin, and Lilly Eliza Melloy's (nee Cowley) daughters Betty and Kathleen.

Clearing up the common

MEMBERS of Lichfield Countryside and Parks Conservation Group will be taking part in improvement work at Muckley Common.

A weed whacking and bramble slashing event is being held on Wednesday, May 4 from 10.30am to 3pm.

The heathland and grassland at the common is under attack from weeds and brambles and they need to be removed to improve the area for wildlife.

The group is also running a building a bug hotel event in Beacon Park, Lichfield, on June 1 from 10.30am to 3pm. Everyday items are used to create habitats for invertebrates and small mammals.

Anyone interested can call Lichfield District Council's countryside team on 01543 308183.

DS Steph Bradley who has adopted Sophie

Policewoman adopts animal Sister keeps memories of 'rhino' alive

A POLICEWOMAN from Cheslyn Hay has adopted a rhino in memory of her brother – a fellow officer who was killed on duty.

Stephanie Bradley, a Wolverhampton Police Detective Sergeant, has been allocated the animal by bosses at West Midlands Safari Park in Bewdley. Her brother, PC Ryan Hunt – nicknamed "Rhino" by rugby teammates – died after being hit by a skip lorry while on an undercover operation in Doncaster in 2006.

Sophie, a six-year-old Indian rhino, will still be looked after by the park but DS Bradley can visit it whenever she wants to.

It came about after the 40-year-old mother-of-three raised £3,700 for Care of Police Survivors – a charity that supports families of officers who have died in service.

The £3,700 was raised through a raffle organised by DS Bradley – and the safari park had provided five day tickets as prizes.

She was amazed when her ticket was drawn out, and it had the number 0951 – her brother's old collar number.

She said: "It seemed like a sign that out of 3,700 tickets mine would be drawn out, and it would have that number."

"That was when the safari park decided it would be nice to do something in Ryan's memory."

The safari park has offered the rhino free for 12 months in PC Hunt's memory. PC Hunt was originally from Cheslyn Hay but working at Thornhill police station, Handsworth.

A former Cheslyn Hay High School pupil, he picked up his nickname playing for Willenhall Rugby Club.

Getting crafty to a bonnet parade

AGE UK's resource centre in Penkridge was full of craft activity as members prepared for their Easter bonnet parade.

The centre, on Roller Mill, hosted the event last Thursday (April 21) which was judged by Sarah Owen, senior manager of day opportunities.

Doreen Hassall, from Cannock, was voted winner of the best bonnet and received a large Easter egg, courtesy of Martin Elson, who works as a driver for the day opportunities service. Mrs Hassall, who attends the centre once a week, spent several weeks making her award-winning head-piece which included chickens, eggs and Wombles.

Sarah Owen said: "It was a lovely afternoon and a very enjoyable time was had by all."

"Mrs Hassall has obviously spent a long time making her hat and it was a very worthy winner." The resource centre provides day opportunities for older people with varying levels of dementia, providing a break away from home.

Age UK South Staffordshire is looking for people who have an interesting craft or skill to become a volunteer and share their talents with the elderly.

For more information about volunteering or the dementia services contact Sarah Owen on 01785 788472 or Sylvia Dunn on 01785 788481.

Blaze warning after yobs start heath fire

A FIRE chief has issued a warning to yobs following an arson attack on a large area of heathland in Rugeley.

Flames spread across a stretch of grass about the size of two football pitches. Cigarette lighters were found.

Warmer than average temperatures caused grass and shrubland around Cannock Chase to be dangerously dry, said Rugeley station manager Alan Bateman.

He led a team of 15 firefighters called to the fire off Cherry Tree Road, Brereton, at 7.50pm last Tuesday (April 19).

Crews found that fires had been started at several different points across the heathland.

They used water jets and beaters to tackle the blaze which took more than two hours to fully put out.

Mr Bateman said: "Once the fire was extinguished we searched the surrounding area and discovered a number of discarded cigarette lighters on the ground."

"The most likely culprits are young people who seem to think it's entertaining to start fires deliberately but what they don't think about is their own safety and that of other members of the public. A fire can spread very quickly, especially when the ground is so dry at the moment and it does not take long for clothes to catch fire which can result in horrific burns or ultimately a fatality."

"We were lucky that there was no wind on Tuesday night otherwise we would have struggled to stop the fire from spreading."

He added: "Three fire engines were tied up for two and a half hours dealing with this incident."

"They could have been needed elsewhere."

"Someone could have been trapped in a burning building desperate for help but we were dealing with this fire."

Campaign

"Starting fires deliberately is a really stupid thing to do and we will always pass all of the information we have to the police."

Earlier last month the fire service launched a new campaign to cut the number of deliberately started grass fires over the Easter holiday period.

Bosses said they tend to see a dangerous increase over the holiday period, which is put down to children and teenagers starting fires on purpose.

Angels not afraid to tread for funds

A TEAM of Guardian Angels have an extra special reason to look forward to the start of the summer – as they prepare to take part in the night-time St Giles Hospice's Solstice Walk.

The group of 19 women from Job-Centre Plus in Birmingham Road, Lichfield, are limbering up for the night-time stroll through the city streets.

They are hoping the event, taking place on June 18, will raise hundreds of pounds for the charity.

Taking their name from the building where they all work – Guardian House – the Guardian Angels will don fairy-themed fancy dress and join up to 1,000 other women from across the region for the fundraising extravaganza.

The Solstice Walk takes place every year on the closest Saturday to the summer solstice, and last year it raised £80,000 for St Giles' specialist care for local people with cancer and other serious illnesses.

Guardian Angel Jane Stanforth, who works as a lone parent adviser, said: "Most of us here have been touched by terminal illness in one way or another."

"A few of us have had friends or family members cared for by St Giles Hospice. So it's a charity that means a great deal to us all. When I sent out an e-mail asking who would like to take part in the Solstice Walk, I had a fantastic response, and we've already got 19 women signed up for the event."

"Last year, nine of us took part and we managed to raise £500 for St Giles – and we're hoping to do even better this time around."

The 2011 Solstice Walk is sponsored by UK prepared salad specialist Florette, based in Lichfield, and starts at 10pm in Lichfield city centre.

Participants can choose to complete one 4.5-mile circuit of the city or two laps for the full nine-mile course.

Pack

Although the event is open only to women aged 16 and over, men are encouraged to get involved by volunteering as stewards.

Entry to the Solstice Walk is £15 per person, and everyone who signs up will receive a sponsorship pack including fundraising ideas, training tips and details of how they can raise additional funds through sponsorship.

To register visit www.stgileshospice.com/solsticewalk

Entry forms are also available by calling the St Giles fundraising office on 01543 432538, by emailing fundraising@st-giles-hospice.org.uk or from St Giles Hospice Shops.

Scouting

Scouting

The Scout Section is for young people, usually aged between 10 1/2 and 14 years. A young person can come in to the troop at 10 and may stay until they are 15 years old. Scouts are encouraged to take part in a wide range of activities as part of their programme. 'Participation' rather than meeting set standards is the key approach and for the Scout who wants to be recognised for his or her achievements there are a number of Challenges Awards and Activity Badges. Scouts take part in a balanced programme that helps them to find out about the world in which they live, encourages them to know their own abilities and the importance of keeping fit and helps develop their creative talents. It also provides opportunities to explore their own values and personal attitudes.

Scouting is about being with friends, as part of a team, participating fully in the adventure and opportunities of life.

Volunteering

Cub Scouts also get to go on trips and days out, to places like the zoo, theme parks or a farm. Sometimes you will be able to go camping with the rest of your Pack. This will mean you sleeping in a tent and doing loads of outdoor activities.

Beaver Scouting

Beaver Scouts are young people usually aged between six and eight years old. Easily recognised by their distinctive turquoise sweatshirts, Beaver Scouts enjoy making friends, playing games, going on visits and help others. They usually meet together once a week in a Beaver Scout Colony. These are often the first time a young person spends a night away from home.

Vote Labour on 5th May 2011

Introducing Your Candidates

SAVE OUR SERVICES VOTE Labour ON MAY 5TH

Save our Police

Under the Tory led Government, fully supported by the Lib Dems, there have been huge cuts in the Police budget in Staffordshire, resulting in hundreds of jobs in the Police service being lost. Add this to the Tory plans to close courts and increase the number of community sentences, and you have a recipe for disaster.

Labour will fight to save our Police service from these disastrous cuts. Your safety is too important to put at risk.

Olympic legacy?

Next year sees the Olympics come to Britain. What's our Olympic legacy? Nothing. This is what the Stadium looks like now. This is thanks to the Tories and Lib Dems who demolished our Stadium against your wishes. To make matters worse, they may have cost us, the council tax payers of Cannock Chase, a further half a million pounds as the money ASDA gave to the Council should have been spent on the Stadium site and may now be claimed back by ASDA as the Tories & Lib Dems have not spent the cash. A double whammy.

Housing

Labour is opposed to the high level of housing development planned by the Lib Dems and Tories. We are opposed to development on green field sites and want to promote brownfield development. We want to encourage a higher level of affordable housing for our residents.

Council salaries

Under the Lib Dems & Tories salaries for senior Council staff have got out of hand and have become an unfair burden on hard pressed council tax payers. The wages do not bear comparison with average wages in Cannock Chase and are unfair and unrealistic. We will seek a 10% reduction in these salaries.

Fair treatment for our district

It's about time that the Tory run County Council played fair by Cannock Chase and stopped treating our area as a dumping ground for their rubbish. They also plan to sell large areas of land in our district but the cash won't be spent here. Labour will fight to stop the incinerator at the Poplars and ensure that we get our fair share of County Council cash.

Save our town centres

Labour will push ahead with plans to revitalise our town centres. The town centres are struggling against local competition and we want to make sure that they don't fall further behind. We pledge to continue our support for our towns and improve them to encourage people back into our towns to shop.

Are we really "all in this together"?

Latest figures show that a working middle class family is going to be £4250 worse off this year as a result of government policies. The Governor of the Bank of England said this is "an unprecedented assault on their living standards." The directors of the banks that caused the economic crisis are getting huge bonuses. Are we really "all in this together"?

Yellow lines idea to ease taxi fears

Easter museum fun

Bethany Masters with her rabbit ear masks

A SERIES of Easter activities for children have been running at the Museum of Cannock Chase, including a drop-in workshop for youngsters to make masks and hats.

All kinds of Easter-themed craft activities were offered at the museum in Valley Road, Hednesford. At another workshop children were making bunting, flags and placemats ready for the Royal wedding.

Cannock Chase Council's play rangers have also been running activities including an Easter treasure hunt.

DOUBLE yellow lines may be put in place at a road junction in Burntwood where taxis have been parking. The move comes after concerns were raised by residents and councillors.

Burntwood Town Council has been told about the problem of taxis in Rugeley Road, Spencer Drive and Chase Terrace making it difficult for other road users to travel safely.

The council will hear today (Thursday) that Staffordshire County Council's highways department has put together proposals to deal with the issue near the premises of A1 Taxis.

Before double yellow lines can be introduced, which will require a traffic order, the proposal will also need to go before the Lichfield Parking Board and go out to public consultation.

At a previous town council meeting councillors were told that up to 10 taxis at any one time had been seen parked there and parking at the junction was making it difficult for other drivers to travel safely.

Residents were also having difficulty getting out of their drives.

Clerk Mary Danby will report that proposals drawn up by a traffic management officer aim to prevent parking around the junction at all times of the day.

Action

If an order is made it will cover both sides of Spencer Drive for 20 metres from the junction with Rugeley Road and 62 metres of the western side of Rugeley Road.

Mrs Danby said there had been problems over a number of years and two town councillors had called for action at a recent planning meeting.

She said double yellow lines could not be put in place until after public consultation.

A1 Taxis owner Gary Wall was not available for comment.

2011 - Year of the Bible DID YOU KNOW?

That the Phrase 'Immortal Soul' is not mentioned in the Bible?

Ezekiel chapter 18 verse 20 says The soul that sinneth, it shall die. We are told in Genesis chapter 2 that God breathed into Adam and he became a living soul (or living being). When we die our breath is removed and we cease to exist. The Psalmist says His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish (Psalm 146 verse 4). When we die those who trust in God are said to sleep and their next conscious moment will be at the resurrection. Read the first letter of Paul to the Corinthians chapter 15 verses 10 to 26.

Friends rally round to aid 'Ainger's Rangers'

by SARAH HAZELWOOD

FAMILY and friends of a Rugeley student who tragically lost a battle with leukaemia have helped to raise more than £1,600 at an event held in his memory.

Aaron Ainger, of Etching Hill, Rugeley, was just 19 when he was diagnosed with acute lymphoblastic leukaemia, a particularly aggressive form of the disease, in February three years ago.

After he was diagnosed with the illness, the former Fair Oak pupil, who also attended Stafford College, tried to help other cancer patients maintain physical activity during their treatment.

Auction

And to maintain his drive to help others, Aaron's family including older sister Elise and younger brother Theo backed a three-day fundraiser at The Blass Works in Brewery Street, Rugeley, last weekend.

The event which kicked off on Friday (April 22) boasted raffles, a tombola and a host of other activities including an auction where a framed picture of s.hazelwood@expressandstar.co.uk

Aaron was sold for £100. Local businesses also stepped in to offer their help by donating a number of prizes and helped collect £1,689, for Ainger's Rangers.

Ainger's Rangers was set up to support Aaron's three named charities - The Anthony Nolan Trust, Leukaemia Research and CLIC Sargent.

After finding a suitable donor, the Liverpool Hope University student, who had been studying sport and nutrition, underwent a transplant operation at the city's Alder Hey hospital.

But Aaron's condition deteriorated months after the operation, when he contracted an infection, and he died on December 27 2008.

The sport-mad youngster, known as "Aing" by his friends, played football for Brereton Social and had ambitions to become a personal trainer.

His stepfather Jed Wylie said: "From the outset Aaron was determined to beat the leukaemia."

"He always focused on what he would be doing once he was better."

"I've never seen such extraordinary courage in anyone as I saw in him."

"He never gave up, never asked 'why me' and never complained."

"He fought the illness with immense bravery and dignity."

Last summer more than 300 friends and family held a disco at Lea Hall Club and raised £7,000 for Ainger's Rangers.

Tots celebrate the Queen's birthday

CHILDREN at a Cannock nursery celebrated the Queen's birthday last week.

The youngsters at Happy Tots Nursery, in Bridge Street, Bridgton, spent the day dressing up, making and decorating crowns, baking jam tarts and having a party in honour of Queen Elizabeth II. The monarch celebrates her real birthday on April 21 every year and an 'official' birthday in June.

Children at the nursery have also written a birthday letter and are hoping to receive a reply from Buckingham Palace.

Marathon challenge raises Lupus UK cash

Kate and John Hibbs with their medals

A HUSBAND and wife from Hednesford have raised thousands of pounds for a charity close to their hearts.

John and Kate Hibbs have so far generated £2,400 by running this month's London Marathon and hope to get the final figure to £3,000 soon.

The money will go to the charity Lupus UK, which helps John's sister Viki cope with the condition. She was just 25 when she was diagnosed with Lupus three years ago.

John, aged 33, an IT analyst, and Kate, 30, an assistant headteacher of Bakers Way, first ran the event last year and their recent participation will mean they may have raised around £15,000 in total. Lupus causes the body's immune system to go into overdrive and starts to attack itself. It is believed that more than 50,000 people throughout the UK suffer with Lupus, and of those, 90 per cent are female.

There is no cure, and patients are likely to remain under medical care for many years.

John said: "It was a fantastic day. We finished the run in five hours and 44 minutes. We also set up our first Lupus cheering points, so it was great to see our family and friends there along the route, especially my sister who we were running for."

John's next race will be the Love Life Love Running 10k at Cannock Chase on July 23.

In 2009, John tweeted Sarah Brown, the wife of the then Prime Minister, to ask her to retweet a message to her many Twitter followers. Not only did she do so, she arranged a reception for Lupus UK at 10 Downing Street.

A CANNOCK pub staged a Bank Holiday fundraising day for the charity Support Our Soldiers.

The event was held on Easter Monday (April 25) at The Pied Piper, in Pye Green Road.

Supporters took part in a tug-of-war competition and a karaoke contest was also held.

There was live music through the day from bands including Zephilo, Brains for Breakfast, Paper Doll, and Call 22. A bouncy castle provided fun for children and there was an evening disco.

Support Our Soldiers was launched in March 2003 and has sent more than 70,000 morale-boosting care parcels to troops on the frontline in Afghanistan and Iraq.

It is also setting up forces families groups across the UK so that families and friends with loved ones in the Armed Forces can get together and meet others.

2011 Year of the Bible

DID YOU KNOW

That the Phrase Immortal Soul is not mentioned in the Bible? Ezekiel chapter 18 verse 20 says The soul that sinneth, it shall die. We are told in Genesis chapter 2 that God breathed into Adam and he became a living soul (or living being). When we die our breath is removed and we cease to exist. The Psalmist says His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish (Psalm 146 verse 4). When we die those who trust in God are said to sleep and their next conscious moment will be at the resurrection. Read the first letter of Paul to the Corinthians chapter 15 verses 10 to 26.

Artist puts on display of work to help forces

Councillor Steve Norman, Steve Taylor, John Hayward and Keith Williscroft at the opening

AN ARTIST from Burntwood staged an exhibition of his work to raise money for Help for Heroes.

John Hayward, from Chasetown, had his work on show at Lichfield Library Art Gallery. The exhibition was opened by Lichfield's Mayor Christopher Spruce and was well attended by the public, who had the opportunity to buy the artwork.

Burntwood resident Keith Williscroft, who has served in the armed forces, said: "I really enjoyed the exhibition and we should all be proud of John for his artistic talent and his contribution to the charity."

Mr Hayward will be donating 50 per cent of the proceeds to Help for Heroes, which gives aid to soldiers who have been injured during service. The rest of the funds will go towards covering costs of the exhibition.

Steve Taylor, from Burntwood, said: "Burntwood should be proud of local people like John, an artist from Chasetown whose work and generosity to charities is outstanding." Councillor Steve Norman, who represents Summerfield on Burntwood Town Council, has been campaigning for arts facilities in Burntwood for several years.

He said: "John has produced some amazing work in the short time since he took up painting."

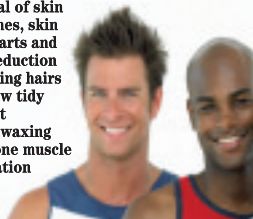

"Whilst it is great that his work can be seen in Lichfield it is great pity that his work and the work of other talented Burntwood artists have nowhere to exhibit in the town."

Chairman hits back on centre

THE chairman of Hednesford Town Council has defended the use of Pye Green Community Centre, which it manages.

There has been criticism that is under-used following approval of a £400,000 plan to expand the centre in Bradbury Lane.

Councillor Alan Pearson told the annual town meeting: "I was concerned to read in the press letters from local residents asserting that the community centre is not well used."

He refuted allegations, stating that they have to turn down bookings as they have so many.

Each week the centre has regular bookings from dance groups, martial arts trainers, keep fit trainers and weight watchers groups, and its hall is regularly booked for private parties.

The Citizens Advice Bureau provides an outreach centre and there is an IT suite where adults get free computer tuition.

There is also a police presence so officers have a local base at the centre. The council felt it not only made savings, but generated income by contracting out the bar service in the hall.

Councillor Pearson said: "I imagine that the community centre is used by several hundred people each week and we have to turn down bookings as we can't accommodate everyone."

Ensure

The council has taken the decision to obtain a loan of £225,000 to cover a shortfall in the money needed for the expansion.

"Without doubt this will ensure the provision of a much-needed, high quality community facility for the future," he said.

Pub chips in with night to aid Tom

A PUB owner from Cheslyn Hay has helped raise more than £200 for an autistic man struggling to afford to stay at his day centre.

The fundraiser, in aid of 20-year-old, Tom Foster, who has severe autism and is registered blind, was held on Easter Monday (April 25), at the Mary Rose pub, in Moons Lane.

With a raffle and live entertainment the evening raised £205 which owner Julie Johnson handed over to Tom at the end of the night.

Tom, who previously received funding to attend Short Street Community and Learning Centre, in Brownhills, three times a week, is now seeking ways to raise cash as his allowances draw to a close. Julie who has grown to know Tom and his carer wanted to do something to help fund his visits to the centre which cost £38 per session.

by SARAH HAZELWOOD

"I have got to know Tom very well because he comes to the pub for his lunch every Friday after swimming," she said.

"Since his funding has been cut I volunteered to still pay for his weekly meal because I don't want him to have to lose something which he enjoys so much."

"His parents were thrilled with the money we raised because every little bit really does help."

"The thought of having to uproot Tom to another centre is a huge weight for his parents to deal with so I am just pleased to be able to do what I can to ensure that he remains where he is happy for as long as possible."

Choir set to perform

Meals in Minutes!

If you've ever complained that you're too busy to lose weight, you're not alone. New research by the UK's favourite slimming club Slimming World shows that more than half of people believe lack of time is the main reason for Britain's obesity crisis. And a quarter of those questioned say they'd like to eat a healthier diet but are too busy to make eating well a priority.

But a weight loss expert from Cannock says that losing weight and creating delicious, healthy meals doesn't have to be time-consuming. A new recipe book from Slimming World's Food Optimising eating plan, a healthy eating programme for healthy appetites. Generous and flexible, it encourages slimmers to cook delicious dishes based around satisfying foods like fruit and vegetables, rice, pasta, potatoes, fish and lean meat, so that they enjoy real food, never go hungry and still lose weight.

"The beautifully photographed meals go from fridge to feast in just 30 minutes, showing just how flexible and successful Food Optimising can be. When combined with the support, motivation and inspiration that members get at a Slimming World group, that's a powerful weight loss package that's hard to beat."

In fact, cooking healthily doesn't have to be a laborious task and Slimming World's latest cookbook Extra Easy Meals in Minutes proves just that. It's full of really simple and delicious recipes that you can have on the table in 30 minutes or less, so even after a really busy day you'll still have time to whip up something tasty. And best of all they're all super-slimming and won't cost the earth either.

The brand new recipe book contains more than 50 time-saving recipes that are also kind to the waistline. From family suppers to speedy snacks and even dinner party dishes, the collection caters for all occasions so slimmers can too.

The easy-to-follow recipes, including linguine with creamy pesto, sticky 5-spice gammon and chick pea and chili cakes, have all been created especially for Slimming World's Food Optimising eating plan, a healthy eating programme for healthy appetites. Generous and flexible, it encourages slimmers to cook delicious dishes based around satisfying foods like fruit and vegetables, rice, pasta, potatoes, fish and lean meat, so that they enjoy real food, never go hungry and still lose weight.

Kate Middleton's Mother falls out with her Dress Designer

Bride's Mother outfits can be a challenge even in the Midlands. One resigned husband said "She's already bought three elsewhere and doesn't like any of them!"

It was sad to read in the Mail on Sunday that the proposed Bride's Mother outfit for Carole Middleton, designed by Lindka Cierach, will probably not be at William and Kate's wedding after all.

Only recently in the 'Express & Star' newspaper I said "Most (bride's mothers) didn't like being dictated to. It is important for a lady to choose something that suits her personality, but also in which she feels comfortable. We say 'don't be pushed into something because you are told it is the latest style'".

Perhaps Carole Middleton read our article!

For the designer, this outfit for Carole would be her great opportunity for her work to be seen on TV all over the world. She probably knew exactly the dress she wanted to design, but it could not be the answer that Carole wanted. There were two alternatives: Carole could wear something she felt was not right for her and say nothing, very difficult to do - or if the designer was inflexible, switch to somebody else.

It is certain Carole Middleton's new outfit will have even closer inspection on the 29th!

This unfortunate situation does sometimes repeat itself with everyday folk. The consultant at Barbara Powell said sometimes we see a difference in opinion on Mother and Father, or the Mother finds something in our store she loves, mobile phones the image to her busy daughter in London who says "Don't like it". Nearly always we can bring out alternatives so that everybody is happy. Prices from about £190 to £550. At Barbara Powell there are also two and three piece styles for aunts of the brides from £100 and for younger ladies, on the knee party dresses from £80 to £250, which are ideal for evening receptions.

The finishing touch - hats and fascinators (hair decorations) are essential to complete the look for ladies at the wedding. Barbara Powell has one of the best selections in the Midlands. If required, 'Specials' in a wide range of colours can be made in about three weeks, sometimes even quicker.

Barbara Powell is at 2 Mount Street, Stafford ST17 0TZ. Private car parking can be arranged behind the shop if you telephone 01785 242911.

If Carole Middleton does get in a spot, we can recommend our friend Nigel Raymond who has recently opened in Maple Arch and carries very similar styles to ourselves. He is doing great business in London.

CANNOCK TOWNSWOMEN

Talk on 'Smelly Tudors'

THIS is the first report by the new Press officer Gillian Loftus who joined the committee five months ago.

Sandra McLeod one of the founder members, had held the post since 1984 and the Guild would like to thank her for her hard work, dedication and professionalism. She has now taken on the post of registrar.

The new committee came together on April 19 and were introduced by chairman Hilda Hathaway.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read out by secretary Sue Evans. Treasurer Gillian Gethin reported a healthy bank balance.

Thank you letters were read out for donations to Acorns Hospice, Katharine House and Canine Partners. An invitation was given for members to visit Acorns.

Former member Cynthia Leach was a visitor, returning to Cannock after living in Yorkshire.

Guest speaker was Vicky Blundell who gave a fascinating and amusing insight into "The Smelly Tudors". She made up packets of Pot pourri which went on sale. Gill Loftus thanked Vicky on behalf of the members.

Meetings take place at St Luke's Primary School, New Penkridge Road at 7.30pm on the third Tuesday of each month. Speaker for the next meeting on May 17 will be Malcolm Astley on Moseley Old Hall.

AROUND THE CLUBS

Stella is handed the gavel

CANNOCK WI

PRESIDENT Del Johnson welcomed another new member Jenni Lee, to the April meeting.

She also wished a speedy recovery to Elizabeth Atfield after her hip operation and to Rosemary Larkin and Lucy Crosby who are hopefully on the road to recovery.

Birthday wishes were given to these month's ladies, and the notification of a fashion show by Barbara Powell on June 22 at Acton Trussell.

The President said what a success the Group meeting, hosted by Cannock WI, had been. The Speaker Mrs Susan Morgan kept everyone highly amused with her life story on becoming a hairdresser on cruise ships. She had met many celebrities and made great friends during that time.

WI Denham College representative Jill Williams gave an informative talk on the varied courses available to all WI members, which were highly recommended. Kay Mathews was presented with a Long-serving membership certificate.

Social secretaries Jenni and Jan were thanked for arranging the outing to Cheltenham, which was greatly enjoyed by the members.

The AGM took place, with the President giving her thanks to her officers and committee for their support and hard work over the past year.

The President informed the group that after holding the position for 10 years she was now standing down. Secretary Helen Hallchurch and treasurer Kath Chackett, aged 87, also retired.

Stella Winfield becomes the club's new President. Barbara Mathews takes on the role of treasurer, and Chris Pace becomes the secretary.

Three new committee members were welcomed and Del gave her best wishes to the new officers and presented the incoming President with a new gavel. She thanked Jan Shaw for the wonderful holidays she organises, Joyce Guillaume for her tuition at craft mornings, dedicated helpers Wyn Gardner and Audrey Hicklin and Press agent Stella Winfield for hosting the cookery group and games mornings. Barbara Mathews was thanked as speakers' secretary and catering services.

Stella thanked the President for her hard work in making the club a success and said Del would be a difficult act to follow.

The outgoing President and officers were each presented with a plant. Jan Anderson won the competition for a decorated hat.

The members then enjoyed quiz games followed by a fish and chip lunch. The next meeting is on Thursday May 12 in St Luke's Church Hall at 10.30am, the topic is The National Memorial Arboretum and the competition is A Prayer Book.

Group's delight at winning ticket

CANNOCK SOROPTIMISTS

In fact, the ticket, bought by Mrs Jean Dennison, was one of the first sold by Soroptimist Pat Preece.

Mrs Dennison was presented with a cheque for £283 by Shopping Centre Manager Natal Chapman. This was half of the money raised by the March lottery; the remainder, except for five per cent administration costs, will go towards funding town centre events such as the Carnival to be held in July of this year.

Soroptimists, along with Cannock Lions and Cannock Rotarians, are supporting the Lottery again this month, their details appear on the back of the lottery tickets along with information of three of the groups they all support locally: Special Needs Adventure Playground; Pathway and Young Carers.

Members of the Soroptimist and Lions clubs will be selling tickets in the Shopping Centre on Tuesdays, Fridays and Saturdays throughout April.

Tributes are paid to bowls champ Keith

Bowler Keith Carter

TRIBUTES have been paid to a popular champion bowls player who died earlier this month.

Keith Carter, from Cheslyn Hay, won the Cannock Indoor League on seven occasions, with playing partner Craig Barker. Their last triumph came in February this year despite Keith being ill.

Having suffered from pneumonia in 2009 Keith contracted pulmonary fibrosis and was ill for several months before passing away at Stafford Hospital.

A stand at Cheslyn Hay M&B is to be jointly named in his honour along with another former player George Macgill who died in 2009.

Club captain Craig, 39, said Keith, aged 67, was like a father to him. He said: "He was a very caring man and had time for everybody. We were very close and Keith was well known and very popular across the Midlands. It's just such a sad loss."

Craig said that family man Keith, an architect for Walsall Council until his retirement two years ago, was a lover of computers and gadgets and played golf in his spare time. He also took pride in owning his own fish pond.

"Keith was a proper family man who lived for his family and his grandkids," Craig added.

"In bowls he was good under pressure, a team player and played the game very hard. He was a colourful character and was famous for playing with red bowls."

Keith was called up for Staffordshire three years ago. Mel Evans, captain at Chads Moor Bowls Club, where Keith also played, said: "He would do anything for anyone and when my own father died in 1989 he the first one that came to see me."

A host of tributes have been left on bowls forum website www.talkingbowls.com and son Paul said: "We are humbled that dad was held in such esteem."

Keith's funeral was held in at St Mark's in Great Wyrley last week and attended by some 300 people.

James' verse is the best

A CHESLYN Hay schoolboy has had a poem selected for inclusion in a national poetry anthology.

Cheslyn Hay Primary challenged Year Six pupils to write poems for the annual Young Writers creative award.

James Sturgess's poem called, I Asked a Boy Who Cannot See, was one of those chosen for submission.

Dad Tim said the 11-year-old, who will attend Cheslyn Hay Sport & Community High from September, had heard the poem would be featured in Once Upon a Rhyme, the Young Writers 2011 anthology.

Beating the baggage excess

BUDGET airlines have brought cheap holidays to the masses but travellers beware punishing baggage excess charges.

Some airlines charge £10, £20, even £40 per kilo penalties for being over the weight limit – that can sometimes cost more than the ticket!

So savvy travellers go prepared and the best way to be prepared is to use the lightest bag you can. If you are going away for a week, you don't really want to compromise too much on size and whilst you want a sturdy bag, you don't want to waste too much of that precious weight allowance.

Antler's new Duolite range combines high specification with an eye to weight and size restrictions. They are all roller cases with adjustable handles for ease of use.

The smallest case has an empty weight of just 2.1kg, the medium case is only a touch heavier at 2.5kg and the largest is a mere 2.9kg, nearly a kilo lighter than most competitors and capable of holding some 20kg contents.

Dimensions

The smallest of the three, the cabin case, has a slim profile perfect for placing on overhead racks and complies with the size dimensions of most airlines.

The strong but super-light design is a unique combination of ABS (Acrylonitrile butadiene styrene) and 400 denier nylon. For security there are interlocking zip pullers and locks approved by American security bosses.

The cases are also covered by Antler's 10-year warranty.

The cabin case costs £99, the medium case £115 and the largest £119. Duolite can be found in House of Fraser, Selfridges, John Lewis and many other leading department stores and specialist retailers.

The Duolite by Antler cabin bag – weighing in at just 2.1kg

If you don't want to invest in new baggage, another way to avoid a nasty surcharge shock at the check-in desk is to weigh your case(s) in advance.

The Antler by Salter digital luggage scale does the trick.

The silver-coloured pocket-sized scales include a robust handle and hanging loop big enough to fit around any sized handle.

It can weigh up to a maximum of 40kg and if you are taking that much you probably have included the kitchen sink.

Battery

The digital readout is powered by a supplied lithium battery.

To use it, press the 'on' switch, attach your baggage to the handle using the strap/clip and pull the luggage from the floor. The scale will beep and show the weight.

The Antler by Salter digital luggage scale costs around £25 and is widely available online.

Get organised with a gadget bag

PEOPLE have so much hi-tech paraphernalia these days – mobile phones, MP3 players, digital cameras, flash keys, chargers, power packs, USB cables, etc – that you need a rucksack to carry them around... or better still, the Properta Gadget Bag.

This well-designed bag keeps all your mobile devices safely in one place whilst travelling, in individual compartments which keep the devices separate for quick and easy access.

Each compartment has an aperture, allowing headphones or charging cables to be fed through, meaning you can even use some of the devices whilst they are safely concealed and protected by the bag.

Overall, the bag measures 26cms by 21cms by 6cms, and the main bag has a padded lining to minimise the risk of scratching. The bag is made from tough Cordura and there is also a shoulder carry strap. It is compatible with most major device manufacturers, including iPod.

The Properta Gadget Bag sells for £24.99; see Properta's website at www.properta.com.

Group in hunt for recruits

A DRAMA group that has been struggling to find actors is launching a drive to find new blood. St. Luke's Dramatic Society has been putting on plays in Cannock since 1945. Social secretary Sade Keable said the group needed new members, particularly young adults.

The society is holding a recruitment event on May 20 and 21 at St Luke's Church Hall from noon. It will include a display of old photos and a free performance of the short play The Last Tango in Little Grimley. Anyone interested should call David Gethin on 01543 504384.

Authority in probe after residents targeted

Alert is issued on council tax scam

HOUSEHOLDERS across Cannock Chase are being warned by the district council to be on their guard after residents were targeted in a council tax scam.

Residents were contacted by a person claiming to represent a government department.

The caller had the name and address of both residents and stated that as both residents had always paid their council tax on time, they had been selected to receive a £7,000 reward.

The caller then asked for their bank details to arrange for the payment to be made.

One of the residents gave their bank details to the caller before becoming suspicious.

Both householders reported the incident to Cannock Chase Council and the authority is now investigating.

Trouble

Stephen Baddeley, the council's chief internal auditor said: "I appeal to residents not to give out any personal information if they receive this kind of call."

"If these criminals get hold of your bank details then you could be in real trouble. Please call us immediately on 01543 462621 or call the police on 0300 123 4455 if you believe you have fallen victim of this scam."

The warning follows recent reports of two council taxpayers from Lichfield and one from Cannock who were targeted by a bogus caller falsely claiming to work for the local authorities' council tax department.

The caller told the victims they had overpaid their council tax, offered them an over-the-phone refund, and then asked for their details to pay the supposed refund.

Bunnies are not just for Easter is store message

L to r: Hannah Woods (aged 12), from Stafford, with Smudge and Lauren Griffiths (18), from Norton Canes with Robyn

A CANNOCK pet shop used Easter time to bring home the message about adopting bunnies.

Staff at Pets At Home, in Orbital Way, said they were aware many people bought rabbits or other pets at this time of year, as a result of "impulse" buying. They said they wanted to encourage them to consider taking in pets discarded by previous owners.

A rabbit competition was held as part of the store's fundraising drive for its Support Adoption for Pets campaign.

Support Adoption For Pets provides financial support to the many rescue centres in the UK which help find new homes.

More than 40 owners brought their long-eared bunny friends to the store.

Cannock store deputy manager Emma Morgans, aged 23, said: "We get pets dropped off every week with owners just telling us they can no longer look after them."

"In our adoption centre for animals at the store we've not only got rabbits, but Guinea pigs and hamsters - all discarded by people and dropped here."

THE Royal Wedding SPECIAL

How love grew . . .

CATHERINE Elizabeth "Kate" Middleton grew up in Berkshire and, after attending Marlborough College, went to the University of St Andrews, where she met Prince William, also studying there, in 2001.

And it was at that university that the two first met and got to know each other. Kate Middleton was one of Prince William's flat-mates and they began dating in 2003.

Once the relationship became known they attracted massive media attention, triggering complaints by Kate that the media were harassing her.

In April 2007, the press reported that William and Kate had split up. They continued to be friends, and later in 2007 they reunited.

Since then, she has attended many high-profile royal events. She has been admired for her fashion sense and has been placed on numerous "best-dressed" lists.

Since her relationship with Prince William began, Kate has received widespread media attention and there was much speculation that they would eventually marry.

Ring

On November 16, 2010, the office of the Prince of Wales at Clarence House announced their engagement. Prince William revealed that he had proposed to his girlfriend using the engagement ring that belonged to his mother.

The date and location of the wedding were announced one week later.

In no time commemorative coins, porcelain plates and all kinds of Royal Wedding items appeared and the Royal love story now features in a splashy comic book, a made-for-TV film and stamps to commemorate the Royal Wedding.

Even Legoland has joined in with its miniature Buckingham Palace and a curiously square couple sharing a kiss in front of cheering crowds of well-wishers - all made up of tiny plastic blocks. Something for the young Royal followers.

ALWAYS TIME FOR FRIENDS - AND FUN

Four-bed executive period-style home has been reduced

ANYONE viewing a Georgian style detached four-bedroom property in Cannock is unlikely to be disappointed with what they find, according to the selling agents.

Newly reduced to £589,995, 151 Hatherton Road represents a rare opportunity to acquire an impressive individually designed executive family house in a much sought-after location just a stone's throw from Cannock Chase and the town centre. The spacious accommodation includes gas central heating and extensive parking and is on the market via Webbs.

The house is approached via a hardwood front door, which leads into a porch with a parquet floor, and an L-shaped reception hallway, which has high ceilings and coving.

Leading off is a study, guest WC and breakfast kitchen. In here, there's a range of wall and base units, rolled-edge worksurfaces, stainless steel one-and-a-half bowl sink unit with mixer taps, built-in electric oven and gas hob with extractor, plumbing and space for a dishwasher.

There is a ceramic tiled flooring and a door to the utility, which includes base units, rolled-edge worksurfaces, ceramic tiled flooring, space and plumbing for a washing machine and access to the rear garden.

The 16ft 8in x 14ft 7in lounge has a full-width Georgian bay window, two arch alcoves with lighting, ceiling coving and rose and a feature Adam style fire surround with marble back and hearth and a gas log effect basket. Alternatively, there is the option of an open fire and chimney.

Also on the ground floor is a dining room with ceiling coving and rose and French doors leading to the rear garden.

Flooring

Leading off the gallery landing are four bedrooms, the spacious master having built-in triple wardrobes plus a further wardrobe with storage above and a part-tiled en suite shower room, which has a corner cubicle, vanity unit with a sink, WC and laminate tiled effect flooring.

There are three further bedrooms, two of which have fitted wardrobes/furniture, and a part-tiled family bathroom, comprising a roll top bath with telephone shower attachment, shower cubicle, pedestal wash basin, WC, laminate flooring and spotlights.

Outside, the property is approached via a lawn, shrubs, trees and sweeping Larmac driveway with parking for several cars and leading to a detached double garage.

A side gate gives access to the enclosed private rear garden, which has a paved patio, lawn and flower, shrub and tree borders.

Range Rover is saving its best for the Shanghai and New York shows

Prestige models star in big show

WITH global sales up 29 per cent, Range Rover products are taking centre stage on Land Rover's Shanghai and New York Auto Show stands.

The Range Rover Autobiography Ultimate Edition – the most luxurious Range Rover ever – was being unveiled for the first time in China and North America. Only 500 units of this limited edition vehicle will be commissioned globally, and each car will be crafted to customer order only.

Already more than 150 orders for the Ultimate have been taken in China and more than 50 in the United States.

The Ultimate Edition offers unrivalled levels of comfort and luxury for driver and passengers. Features include two stand-alone powered rear seats, a rear console extension with an aluminium laptop table and a drinks chiller.

Attention to detail is second-to-none with hand-crafted soft leathers, machined aluminium detailing and a super-yacht inspired teak floor in the rear load space. For the first time in a vehicle, two Apple iPads are fitted as standard. Anticipated prices in North America and China are $170,000 and RMB 3,398,000 respectively.

The Evoque made its Chinese debut at the Shanghai Auto Show when it is unveiled by Land Rover global brand director, John Edwards.

Range Rover executives face the flashbulbs to extol the brand's virtues

"China is Land Rover's fastest growing market with Range Rover in particular seeing positive growth – up 59 per cent year on year," said Mr Edwards. "The Range Rover Evoque is set to be equally in demand, with more than 1,000 Chinese customers placing pre-orders – despite not having seen the car in the metal and before official pricing has been announced," Edwards said.

The Evoque will also take centre stage in New York – the biggest metropolitan market for Range Rover.

Sales of the marque are up 22 per cent this year to date in North America as US customers continue to respond positively to the British brand's outstanding levels of performance, design and comfort and the Range Rover Evoque is expected to draw new North American customers to the brand.

Exceptional

Every Evoque destined for the US will be equipped with all-wheel drive and a new 240PS 2.0-litre Si4 petrol engine, which combines direct fuel injection, turbocharging and twin variable valve-timing for exceptional driveability and fuel-efficiency.

The 2012 Model Year Range Rover will also feature on Land Rover's stands at both the Shanghai and New York shows.

New and refreshed features for 2012 include a range of exterior paint treatments, new 20-inch V-spoke alloy wheels and a range of new interior colours.

Luxuries abound in the Range Rover Evoque: iPads are standard and there's an optional teak-lined luggage space

Third Division Littleton give holders cup scare

CANNOCK CHASE LEAGUE by TIM ELSMORE

HOLDERS Thatch from the Premier League just about knocked out Third Division Littleton 1-0 in the semi-final of the Cannock Chase Cup thanks to a late second half goal from Richard Harris.

Littleton were the first team from the Third Division to reach the semis and no team has won this cup from outside the Premier League.

Awaiting the Thatch in the final are four times record holders Belt Road who needed two late goals to knock out Yates Sports 2-1. Chris Deakin equalised early in the second half from the spot and then with two minutes to go, Danny Meers, back from Afghanistan a day before, knocked home the winner to put them into their second final of the season.

In Division 1, St Matthews easily beat AFC Heath Hayes 6-1. Robin Hood beat champions Red, White & Blue 3-0 with goals from Reis Nadat, Ben Pugh and goal of the game, 30 yard screamer, from star man Stuart King.

The Littleton stay top of Division Three by just a point by beating Rugeley Rgrs 7-1. Darren Bradley scored a hat-trick and there was a goal each for Richard Tapper, Russ Ambrose, Sean Hibberts and John Whitehouse.

Harrisons became the first team to beat Broomhill Albion but only just. Leading 4-0 at half time with a double from Sam Taylor and one each for Craig Hyden and Rich Clarke, Broomhill fought back to score three goals leaving Harrisons to hang on at 4-3.

Louis Auto's gained some revenge over league cup winners Lea Hall with a 6-2 win in Division Four. Dave Arrowsmith scored a hat-trick, Wes Grey got two and there was one from Ash Mullinder.

Hednesford Ex beat local rivals Lamb & Flag 7-2. John Gregory scored a hat-trick, Ant Penwright bagged his 28 and 29th goals of the season and Wayne Marsh and Matty Harper added one each.

League leaders Dynamo Bridge are still on for the treble after knocking out Forest Rangers 4-1 in the Division 5 Cup semi final. Chris Geldard scored a hat-trick with one from Matt Barham put them into tomorrow night's final against Cannock & Rugeley.

In Division 5, Cannock & Rugeley thrashed Noah's Ark 9-0. Lee Jones scored a hat-trick and Chris Collins bagged two. Athletico Bridge had super sub Troy Allan to thank for their 1-0 win over Hen House. Troy came on with 30 minutes to go, scored and in the celebration broke his nose and got carried off. Tomorrow night is the Division 5 Cup Final. Dynamo Bridge against Cannock & Rugeley at Great Wyrley FC, kick off 7.30pm. Then on Sunday (May 1), it is the Premier League Cup Final, holders Belt Road against Pelsall Bush at Gt Wyrley FC, kick off 2.00pm.

Fixtures:

Thursday April 28: Cannock Charity Cup semi-finals: Bar Sport v Broomhill Albion; Mary Rose v The Littleton.

Friday April 29: Division Five League Cup final: Cannock & Rugeley v Dynamo Bridge.

Sunday May 1: Premier League Cup Final:

Pelsall Bush v Belt Road.

Some of the walkers at the top of Snowdon - proudly sporting their Wyrley Juniors FC scarves

Teamwork the key as Wyrley scale heights

WYRLEY Juniors players, managers, parents and friends took time out from Easter celebrations to support the Club's Long Lane Ground fundraising effort.

The intrepid 40-strong group climbed the Llanberis route to the top of Snowdon, North Wales, the highest mountain in England and Wales at 3,560 feet high.

The effort took three hours travelling there, a three-and-a-half-hour climb and a three hour descent to raise more than £7,000.

The group included children aged 11 and adults up to the age of 61, who were all determined to make the trip to the top. The funds will be used to help complete the club's ambitious Long Lane project, where four pitches, changing rooms and a Community Clubhouse are being built.

Club chairman Keith Hardy said: "The walk was challenging for a number of people but everyone managed to get to the top, which is an achievement in itself, and to raise such a tremendous amount makes me proud to be associated with the club."

Future fundraising efforts include a Long Lane draw and a 24 hour football match.

B Deep and Six On Legs remain at the sharp end of Division One as they recorded 3-1 wins over Old Heads and Banana Grove respectively.

There was an astonishing end to the season in the Lichfield Tuesday six-a-side league which saw How Wide snatch the title in the most unlikely circumstances. Wide were third going into the last week of fixtures, but beat City Boys 3-2. That victory probably hadn't been expected to be enough – but it was, as the previous week's leaders BDFC were beaten 1-0 by FC No Chance, while KED could only draw 0-0 with new boys Classic VI.

Clubhouse rescue call by players

RUGELEY Rugby Club has been handed £1,250 to improve its facilities and is now calling on the community to help.

The club was awarded the cash by RBS Rugby Force, which encourages communities to give something back to their local clubs by volunteering to help with the renovations.

Club director Martin de Ridder said: "We're hoping to have a big crowd from the Rugeley area so we can get our clubhouse ready for next season and enjoy ourselves at the same time."

Rugeley's pavilion at St Augustine's field felt the full force of the harsh winter, causing the central heating to fail and the roof to collapse.

Martin added: "RBS Rugby Force will help us improve the club and make it a real focus for the community. We hope that this weekend will really help us for next season and also introduce new members to Rugeley so we can continue to grow.

Anyone interested in getting involved in Rugby Force at Rugeley on the weekend of June 11 and 12 – or any building firms wishing to donate materials should contact Martin de Ridder on mederidder@hotmail.com or call 07889 088558.

PENKRIDGE 1ST XI (231-4) BEAT SPRINGVALE (225-8) BY SIX WICKETS

PENKRIDGE CC got their 2011 campaign off to the perfect start on Saturday, April 16, as they chalked up a clean sweep of victories on the opening day of the season.

The 1st XI brushed aside the challenge from visitors Springvale, winning by six wickets. Kuwaiti international Faisal Nadeem found English tracks a little different to those he is used to and struggled a little with his length, but still managed to pick up his first English wickets.

Bennett (61) and Hartsorn (44 not out) punished any wayward bowling and helped Springvale to close their innings on 223-8. Penkridge lost two quick wickets but Alex Watson (40) and skipper Paul Szewczyk steadied the ship with a stand of 76 for the third wicket then Matt Jones (44) carried on the good work as he and Szewczyk added a further 90 to put the game out of the visitors' reach. The victorious Penkridge skipper registered his century as he crashed a six to hit the winning runs in the 45th over.

PENKRIDGE 2ND XI (283-5) BEAT OLD WULFS (85) BY 198 RUNS

Chad Clarke scored an imperious maiden Saturday century in the 2nd XI game against Old Wulfs.

Clarke smashed 122 in Penkridge's total of 283-5, ably assisted by Simon Parnaby (68) and wicketkeeper Kevin Baker (60 not out) who both scored at a run a ball.

Parnaby then took charge with the ball as he ripped apart Old Wulfs' top order, bagging 6-21 in a 10 over burst.

Old Wulfs were finally bowled out for 83 in the 33rd over.

PENKRIDGE 3RD XI (80-1) BEAT PENN (78) BY NINE WICKETS

The 3rd XI completed the full house as they crushed Penn, who were bowled out for just 78 with Khalid Sadiq (3-21) and Nadeem Tariq (3-3) the pick of the Penkridge attack. New skipper Adam Ball then crashed an unbeaten half century as Penkridge passed their target in just 14 overs for the loss of 1 wicket.

PENKRIDGE 1ST XI (265-5) DREW WITH BLOXWICH (113-4)

Penkridge were frustrated by a stubborn Bloxwich batting display as they registered a winning draw in a turgid affair on Saturday, April 23.

Batting first, Penkridge once again lost quick wickets at the top of the order, and it was left to Alex Watson (38) and Paul Szewczyk (43) to drag the visitors back into the game.

New signing Tom Chew lit up the afternoon with a pugnacious maiden century for the club in only his second game. He smashed 105 from just 58 deliveries, including 14 fours and 6 sixes, as Penkridge declared on 256-5 in the 46th over. Bloxwich were reeling at 52-4, but Danny King (50 not out from 140 balls) and Ben Hollowood (32 not out) batted out the remainder of the innings and Bloxwich closed on 113-4.

PENKRIDGE 2ND XI (317-5) BEAT BLOXWICH (178) BY 139 RUNS

The second XI continued their impressive start with a second successive maximum points haul.

Simon Parnaby starred with bat again, hitting 105 to set up a run-fest, and his hard work at the top of the order was built on by Shafiq Mohammed (80) and Jon Price (40 not out) as the home side closed their innings on an imposing 317-5 from 50 overs.

Bloxwich came out the blocks in sprightly fashion and there was a flurry of boundaries which kept them in the hunt for an unlikely victory, but they lost wickets at crucial times. Mark Wooton hit a fluent 84, but Jon Price (3-27) cleaned up the Bloxwich tail with three wickets in his second spell to hand a convincing 139 run win to the home side as Bloxwich were dismissed for 178.

CANNOCK U-15S (139-1) BEAT CHURCH EATON (57-9) BY 82 RUNS

Cannock began their u-15s Staffs Youth League campaign with a trip to Church Eaton and came away with an 82 run victory.

Despite the Church Eaton attack receiving plenty of assistance from the wicket Cannock's batsmen scored freely and at the midway stage had reached 52 with James Caswell (10) the only wicket to fall. With wickets in hand Cannock were well placed to post a substantial total which they did in style adding 87 runs off the last 10 overs without losing a wicket. Dan Wood and Connor Shingler both retired after reaching their half centuries with Wood scoring 53 and Shingler 50.

Church Eaton were reduced to 12-4 after just six overs with Dan Bowker and Jack Twigger both taking 2-5 in an opening spell that effectively ended the game as a contest. Wickets continued to fall including 2-9 by Harry Crutchley, and when the innings closed the score had reached 57-9 giving Cannock victory and 20 points.

CANNOCK 3RDS (283-8) BEAT TAMWORTH 3RDS (88) BY 195 RUNS

Tamworth visited Chase Park but were unable to stop Cannock making it two wins out of two.

Winning the toss and batting first Cannock found themselves at 39-2 but a stand of 130 between Nic Bandurak and Paul Martin put the innings back on track. Bandurak fell for 68 but Martin eventually fell for 99, his innings containing 19 boundaries. A half century stand between Dan Bowker (26) and James Caswell (26 no) saw the hosts close on 283-8.

Tamworth's reply started badly when an unx up resulted in opener Haynes being run out without scoring. Good spells by Dan Bowker and Jack Twigger restricted Tamworth to 44-3 and wickets continued to fall until Tamworth were all out for just 88 with Dan Wood taking 4-29 and Anthony Wood 3-13 to give Cannock 24 points.

BANK HOLIDAY SPECIAL AS RIVALS HIT FOR SIX

CHASETOWN 6 RETFORD UNITED 0

THE CURTAIN came down on a memorable season for Chasetown with a 6-0 hammering of Evo-Stik Premier wooden spoonists Retford United on Easter Monday.

The result meant Chasetown finished their maiden Evo-Stik Premier League season in tenth place after coming close to reaching the play-offs, alongside their incredible FA Carlsberg Trophy campaign.

Six different players would find the net during a hot and sunny afternoon at the Scholars Ground, with Gary Birch's strike seeing him finish as top scorer for the season on 19 goals although Ben Jevons also found the target to leave him as top league marksman with 14.

It took Jevons just 11 minutes to open the scoring after Birch had headed on from a Ramone Stephens.

CHASETOWN FC

Seven minutes later Mark Branch unleashed a trademark free-kick after a foul on Stephens and although Derwent got his fingers to the ball, it slotted inside the post.

The home side were totally dominant throughout the first half and on the half hour Mark Branch nodded the ball out to Dean Perrow whose cross was tapped into the net by Birch. Lee Parsons thought he had made it four on 36 minutes as he charged down a hack from Price but was adjudged to have handled by referee Sian Massey.

Retford understandably looked somewhat demoralised at the conclusion of a dreadful season but Jordan Turner did beat the offside trap with Ryan Price alert to hack the ball clear.

The Chasetown onslaught continued though and on 57 minutes Jimmy Turner crossed from the left allowing Richard Davies to chest down and jink the ball over the advancing Derwent and into the corner of the net.

Perrow headed over before on 73 minutes a cross from Turner dropped nicely for substitute Chris Morris but skipper Richard Teesdale got there first and celebrated his 100th league game for the Scholars as he hammered the ball into the net.

In the 89th minute Turner's shot was deflected into the net by Perrow to make it six.

HALESOWEN TOWN 0 HEDNESFORD TOWN 6

HEDNESFORD Town warmed up for tonight's play-off semi-final with a thrashing of hapless bottom club Halesowen Town on another gloriously sunny day.

The Pitmen had already secured second place in the league and The Yeltz had long been relegated so the game took on an almost pre-season significance as Rob Smith close to rest some of his key performers for bigger tests on the horizon.

The joyous Hednesford supporters were in relaxed mood and ensured their heroic players received a standing ovation as they entered the field. The replacements for the likes of Kyle Patterson and Nick Wellecome still did a convincing job as the away side were by far the better team throughout the game.

Marvin Robinson was the stand out player as the big striker helped himself to a hat-trick to stake his claim for a starting berth in the play-off game.

Robinson opened the scoring on 18 minutes when he headed in from close range after a miskick by Alex Rooft. He scored his second with a superb overhead kick on the half hour mark and completed his treble from the penalty spot on 72.

Chris Clements was again instrumental throughout and deservedly swept Hednesford's third goal into the net on 61 minutes. The fifth goal summed up the appalling day at the office for the home side as Robinson's weak cross hit Mark Smith on the knee and bobbed into the net on 82 minutes.

Wellecome came on for a brief cameo and ran onto a Quinn flick to finish with real confidence in stoppage time to send Rob Smith's men on their way to face Leamington in the play-offs – the biggest game at Keys Park for several years – in buoyant mood.

Lucky goal starts rout to end play-off dreams

KENDAL TOWN 4 CHASETOWN 0

CHASETOWN'S last away fixture of the season saw hopes of making the playoffs extinguished with a 4-0 defeat at Kendal Town on Saturday (April 23).

Despite a good start, a fortuitous goal on 28 minutes set the hosts on their way.

Chasetown started the better side with plenty of chances in the opening minutes, Richard Teesdale heading goalwards from a Mark Branch free kick on four minutes but keeper Tom Newton was able to gather.

Three minutes later the Town keeper pushed a shot from Dean Perrow over the bar. Despite a fine showing in the first quarter of the game, it was the home side who would take the lead on 28 minutes when a long free kick from Kieran Walsley bounced over Scholars keeper Richard Woolley and into the net.

Chasetown rallied but the hosts were fired up by the goal and Walsley and Gary McEvatt went close for them before they doubled their lead just before the break.

Another free-kick was palmed out by Woolley with the follow-up cleared off the line but only as far as skipper Shaun Gray who had little trouble in making it 2-0.

The visitors showed some signs of a fightback as the second half began. Perrow's cross landing on the roof of the net and the Town defence blocking a shot from Richard Davies after good work by Jack Farmer and Jimmy Turner.

Walsley would enjoy two further efforts with one shot flying well over the bar and Woolley saving a free kick, but Chasetown continued to work well in midfield.

Farmer and Matty Cohen looked lively for the Scholars but no goals were forthcoming. Gray then going close for the home side with a header but Woolley was able to save.

On 84 minutes Kendal stretched their lead when substitute Carl Osman's first touch saw him head a corner into the net, and the hosts would put the lid on it in the final minute when another free kick from Walsley flew over Woolley on the edge of his box and into the net.

Willenhall safety bid is aided by Hayes victory

OADBY TOWN 0 HEATH HAYES 2

HAYES got back to winning ways with this victory which did a huge favour to neighbours Willenhall Town in their bid to avoid the drop from The Midland Alliance.

A bumpy bone hard pitch and sweltering heat meant the game was never going to be a classic but the young Hayes side adapted to the conditions better than their opponents.

Alan Haycock went close in the opening minutes but his effort was pushed onto the bar by Wayne Connolly and somehow scrambled clear.

The home side came close to taking the lead on the half hour but John Oswin's effort struck the post and rebounded to safety. Play was generally very scrappy with both sides having problems constructing any worthwhile openings.

However Hayes did manage to put together a fine move which led to Steve Allen giving them a 40th minute lead. Play in the second half was not much better than in the first period with the home side posing little threat as the Hayes defence were well on top.

Alan Haycock, who had battled well all game, put the result beyond doubt with a late penalty after he had been brought down by Adam Parry.

A solid performance to ensure double is done

HEATH HAYES 3 BRIDGNORTH TOWN 0

A GOOD solid performance gave Heath Hayes an emphatic win to achieve the double over their Shropshire rivals.

In a sun drenched Easter Monday Midland Alliance fixture it was the visitors who made the better start and it looked as though they had taken a 15th minute lead through Philip Hurdley's header, but the ball from Anwar Olugbon's cross was ruled to be out of play.

This sprang the home side into life and Chris Deakin and Ben Haseley combined to set up Alan Haycock to fire home from 18 yards.

Another fine move from the Hayes front line left Bradley Woolridge in the clear and he coolly side footed home to give the home side a 2-0 interval lead.

The visitors continued to play some neat probing football but the home defence was much more assured than in recent games and Dan Ware in the home goal was never really tested.

Chris Deakin, with a trademark finish, sealed the game on 78 minutes and substitute Dave Fisher had a point blank effort brilliantly saved by keeper Jake Bradburn.

Tonight (Thursday), Heath Hayes play their last home game of the season against FA Vase finalists Coalville Town in a game that could well decide the Midland Alliance title race.

Second place for Pitmen confirmed

HEDNESFORD TOWN 2 BRACKLEY TOWN 0

HEDNESFORD Town secured second place and a home play-off semi-final as their strong run of form continued with two second half goals from Cheyenne Dunkley and a cracking half-volley by Alex Melbourne.

The scoreline, however, hides the fact that despite the Pitmen bossing the second half, on another day Brackley Town should have scored at least two goals in the opening 45 minutes. The away side saw Josh Green head against the cross bar on two minutes, while a wayward cross bounced onto the top of the woodwork with Dan Crane beaten half an hour in.

The Hednesford keeper also made one outstanding full length save to deny Elliott Sandy's acrobatic effort on 39 minutes.

Hednesford laboured in the opening period on a gorgeous day at Keys Park and struggled to find their passing rhythm. The Pitmen returned from the interval in much more positive mood, Wellecome hit a shot through a crowded penalty area straight at Dorrill before Dunkley rose highest at the back post to head in a teasing Darren Champion cross to put his team into a 57th minute lead.

Michael Chennells latched onto an impressive Owen Story through ball four minutes later but unluckily saw his lob beat Crane and bounce over the bar.

The Pitmen confidently saw out the game after that and could have scored more than one before Melbourne picked up a cushioned pass from Clements to crash the ball over the despairing Dorrill in stoppage time.

Cheyenne Dunkley celebrates his goal with Liam Francis (5) and Ben Bailey
